Bitter New Red Blast Fired Against Old Bolshevik Molotov

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today accused former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of waging dogmatic and stubborn opposition to Premier Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence.

The attack in the Soviet Communist party newspaper was the first propaganda blast against the old Bolshevik since the Soviet government announced Jan. 8 that he would return to his former post as permanent Soviet representative to the International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna.

The blast was so strong that foreign observers in Moscow felt the battle against Molotov and his so-called anti-party group could still be under way.

"Lenin's views on questions of foreign policy," said Pravda, "and above all on problems of war, peace and peaceful coexistence are being distorted not only by bourgeois ideologists but also by people who slip from the living and creative Marxist-Leninist position to the path of dead dogmatism."

"This refers directly to the anti-party group headed by Molotov, (Lazarus M.) Kaganovich and (former Premier G. M.) Malenkov. As is known, Molotov, in his dogmatic stubbornness, slips down to making statements alleging that Lenin never and at no time spoke about coexistence of states with different social systems."

Molotov, now 71, returned home from Vienna Nov. 12 to fight a move to expel him from the Communist party after Khrushchev had denounced him and other members of the anti-party group once again at the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress. It was generally assumed that Molotov would be expelled from the party and at best would be allowed to live out his days in obscurity.

The announcement that he was returning to Vienna aroused immediate speculation in diplomatic quarters that Khrushchev had suffered a setback.

The Foreign Ministry at first said Molotov already was en route to the Austrian capital. Later that week the ministry said it did not know when he was going back. The ministry now will not even discuss the matter with Western correspondents. Neither will the headquarters of the Soviet Communist party.

Pravda's article declared peaceful coexistence is absolutely necessary now because a new world war would be suicide.

It praised Khrushchev for having made more than 30 visits to countries in Europe, Asia and America in support of his policy of peaceful coexistence.

Supreme Court Upholds Law Against Smut

'Knowing' Possession Seen Key to Opinion Written by Radcliff

Judge William D. Radcliff of the Fourth Appellate District, sitting by assignment on the Ohio Supreme Court, today cast an affirmative vote with other judges of the high court in upholding a statute against knowing possession of obscene literature and motion picture films.

The court threw out another law making it a misdemeanor to possess obscene films without knowledge of obscenity.

The decisions affirmed the conviction of Nico Jacobellis, manager of the Heights Art Theater, Cleveland Heights, for showing "The Lovers", an imported film, but reversed the conviction of Allan S. Warth, manager of the Art Theater, Dayton, for showing the same motion picture.

Jacobellis was indicted under Section 2905.34 of Ohio's Revised Code which provides: "No person shall knowingly . . . exhibit . . . or have in his possession or under his control an obscene, lewd or lascivious . . . motion picture film."

Warth was convicted under Section 2905.342 which names it a misdemeanor to possess an obscene motion picture film, without reference to knowledge or scienter on the part of the accused as to its obscenity.

The Supreme Court in a per curiam opinion declared that section unconstitutional, 6-0.

In the Jacobellis case, five judges affirmed his conviction, one affirmed in part and one dissented.

A three-judge Common Pleas Court fined Jacobellis $2,000 on each of two counts of knowingly possessing and exhibiting an obscene film.

The maximum penalty under that statute is $2,000 and seven years in prison.

Warth was convicted in Dayton Municipal Court and sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse, fined $1,000 and assessed costs of $494. The workhouse sentence and $500 of the fine were suspended on condition he show no more indecent films.

"The Lovers" was shown in both theaters in 1959. The managers said the U.S. Customs Bureau had declared the film was not obscene. The movie was described as a "poetic portrayal of a fashionable young French woman's emotions under the stress of common, contemporary problems."

Cold Wave Sweeps Deep Into Southland

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bone-chilling cold stung broad areas of the nation's northern mid-section today and freezing weather spread deep into parts of the South.

The core of the arctic air held an icy grip over North Dakota and Minnesota. Temperatures fell to nearly 40 degrees below zero in International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border. It was 37 below this morning after a high of -14 Tuesday in the northern Minnesota city.

Freezing weather chilled Southern sections as far as central Texas and eastward through Arkansas, Tennessee, and parts of North Carolina and much of Georgia and Alabama.

The subzero belt stretched across the northern and northern central Plains, the Upper Mississippi Valley and the western Great Lakes region. Some ice-box readings: -30 in Duluth, Minn.; -20 in Minneapolis; -28 in Minot, N.D.; -26 in Fargo, N.D.; and Alexandria, Minn.; -22 in Bismarck, N.D. and -16 in Eau Claire, Wis.

No immediate break in the severe cold was indicated. Even colder temperatures were expected in the frigid belt. Cold wave warnings were issued for northern Ohio, western Pennsylvania and western New York. Weather Bureau forecasters said the icy air will hold tight through the Middle Mississippi Valley, the Ohio Valley and the middle Atlantic states.

Inter-American Peace Panel Readies Strong Indictment of Castro Regime

WASHINGTON (AP)—An inter-American peace committee report due today or Thursday is reported to condemn Cuba for acts of intervention, human rights violations, and Communist ties.

The Organization of American States report is based on the committee's investigation of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime in Cuba. The investigation was requested in a resolution introduced by Peru.

Authoritative sources have said the report contains these major points:

1. Citation and condemnation of Cuba for acts of subversion and political intervention. This report is backed by nine examples of political intervention on the part of the Castro government. In each case, sources said, evidence is presented by the government concerned.

2. Condemnation of human rights violations. Six broad categories of these violations are cited, including executions, jailings, deportations, and deprivation of property.

3. Condemnation of Castro's proclaimed ties with the Sino-Soviet bloc.

Latin American experts regard the report as one of the strongest documents ever presented against a country. One diplomatic source said the report is "a serious document that makes no affirmation that is not backed by fact."

The committee chairman is Ambassador Francisco R. Lima of El Salvador, whose government, with other Central American states, plans to seek sanctions against Castro at next week's foreign ministers' conference at Punta del Este, Uruguay.

The other members of the committee are Colombia, the United States, Uruguay and Venezuela. The committee approved the report unanimously.

The peace committee's report will be one of the basic documents to be laid before the foreign ministers, who will determine if the Castro regime constitutes a menace to the peace of the hemisphere and, if so, what steps are to be taken to meet the problem.

The U.S. delegation, to be headed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, made plans to leave Saturday night for the foreign ministers' conference, which opens on Monday.

Castro has lined up heavy defense artillery for the inter-American conference in Uruguay. The government announced that President Osvaldo Dorticos would head the Cuban delegation and Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, one of Cuba's top Communists, would go along with the rank of ambassador.

Until Tuesday, Foreign Minister Raul Roa was scheduled to head the delegation to the conference Jan. 22 which will take up charges that communism based in Cuba threatens the peace of the hemisphere. The switch was interpreted as evidence Castro's regime is going to do everything possible to head off drastic collective action against it.

Except for the Uruguayan host, Dorticos is the only chief of state scheduled to attend the conference. A government communique said he would hold the rank of foreign minister during the meeting.

Rodriguez, editor of the Communist paper Hoy and a chief planner in Castro's campaign to lead Cuba down the Marxist-Leninist road, also was a last minute addition to the delegation.

It was understood word of the change was communicated to Latin-American diplomats at a reception given Tuesday night for Roa by the ambassador from Uruguay, one of the seven Latin-American nations that still maintains diplomatic relations with Cuba.

The shooting touched off the most violent rioting in the city in months, and demands mounted for the resignations of Balaguer and his armed forces chief, Air Force Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarria, who had been accused of planning to set up a military dictatorship.

(News dispatches from Santo Domingo were subject to censorship and made no mention of the fate of Gen. Rodriguez Echavarria. However, he told newsmen of the government change and Balaguer's resignation after a long emergency meeting of the State Council, and it was assumed he was still in control of the armed forces.)

White Barber 'Lacks Skill' On Negro Hair

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP)—Counsel for a barber charged with practicing racial discrimination in his shop has told an Ohio Civil Rights Commission hearing examiner that the crux of the question is:

Can the state force a journeyman barber to learn a new skill?

Harry W. Kyle, Xenia attorney defending Lewis E. Geger of Yellow Springs, put a barber from Wright-Patterson Air Force Base on the stand Tuesday afternoon. The barber, Howard Allen, testified that he has been a barber 20 years but would need further training to be able to trim the hair of all Negroes, in all styles, satisfactorily.

Geger, charged with refusing to give a Negro a haircut, told the examiner, Prof. Roland J. Stanger of Ohio State University's College of Law, that he doesn't know how to cut a Negro's hair. He said he didn't want to risk turning out less than a topflight job of hair-trimming on a Negro.

Earlier in the one-day hearing, First Asst. Atty. Gen. Theodore Saker drew from Geger the admission that the college-town barber would prefer to go out of business rather than cater to Negroes.

Paul N. Graham of Yellow Springs brought the charge against Geger. He alleged that Geger refused to trim his hair despite a new law prohibiting discrimination in places of public accommodation.

Southern Vegetable Prices Climb in Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—Prices on southern vegetables have taken a sharp jump at the wholesale food terminal here as a result of recent killing freezes in Texas, the chief supplier of the Cleveland produce market at this time of year.

A produce market reporter for the U.S. Department of Agriculture cited these typical wholesale price changes from Friday to Tuesday: Green beans up $1 a bushel; cabbage up $1 to $1.50 a crate; iceberg lettuce up from $2.75-$3 to $3.75-$4.25 a crate.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Suburban Lincoln Heights was faced today with the possibility it may have to close its elementary and high schools after voters rejected, for the third time in three months, a 3½ mill school operating levy.

Boy's School Fire Confession Studied

CHICAGO (AP)—The state's attorney's office has taken over the investigation of a 13-year-old boy who allegedly confessed he started the fire at Our Lady of the Angels School which killed 92 children and 3 nuns in 1958.

State's Atty. Daniel Ward said the boy will be brought into Family Court and a delinquency petition is expected to be filed.

The boy is not under arrest or police guard. No charges have been filed against the youth and authorities have declined to disclose his name.

The boy, now an eighth-grade public pupil in suburban Cicero, was in the fifth grade in the Chicago Roman Catholic school at the time of the fire, Dec. 1, 1958.

Goldwater Denies Intention to Run

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater says he would pull out of the United Nations.

He also criticized anew Tuesday night the Kennedy administration, but the Arizona conservative said he has no intention of running for the Presidency.

Goldwater, a Republican, spoke to an audience of students and townspeople at Miami University.

As for the United Nations, he said, "Let's forget the whole thing and join up with our allies and induce the neutrals to join us."

"The world isn't ready for the united nations."

Young Mother of 11 Claims Incompatibility

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Judge Raymond W. Graham granted Evelyn Jones, 27, a divorce from Ernest Jones Tuesday but said the basis for the petition was "the most amazing I've ever seen."

"That a husband and father of 11 children should be guilty of incompatibility does injustice to the term," said Judge Graham.

U.S. Plans Stern New Effort To Secure Test Ban Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States plans a determined new effort in the next round of disarmament negotiations to get the Soviet Union to agree to a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests under an international inspection system, officials said today.

The United States will go ahead, meanwhile, with its program of underground test explosions, and the probability is that in the next couple of months President Kennedy will make a final decision to conduct nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

Informants said today that the present trend of administration thinking is strongly in favor of atmospheric tests aimed at improving U.S. nuclear weapons performance and developing an anti-missile missile.

The next round of disarmament negotiations is expected to open in Geneva March 14. The date and place are tentative pending approval of the 18 nations which will participate in the conference under U.N. auspices.

Nuclear test ban talks, which opened at Geneva almost three years ago, came to a dead end Tuesday.

However, the United States and Britain stopped short of making a final break in the negotiations with Moscow. Representatives of the two Western powers told the Soviet delegation their governments were willing to take up the test ban problem as part of general disarmament negotiations.

The State Department put the full blame for the collapse of the nuclear test talk on the Soviet Union.

The Soviet government, the department said in a statement, had categorically rejected "the objective of reaching agreement on a separate nuclear test ban treaty under effective international safeguards."

Furthermore, the department said, the Soviet Union long had insisted "that it will only discuss such an arrangement (a test ban) in the context of general disarmament negotiation."

The nuclear test sessions resumed in Geneva Tuesday after a holiday recess. The United States and Britain immediately made an appeal, the State Department said, for the Soviet Union to agree to engage in "serious negotiation."

This appeal the Russians flatly rejected, the State Department said.

African Bloc Seeks Liberty For Angola

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—African delegates sought today to draft a U.N. demand for Angola's independence acceptable to the major Western powers.

"It doesn't matter much whether the resolution is a strong one calling for punitive steps against Portugal or a mild one limiting itself to condemnation," said a veteran African delegate. "The only way to get the Portuguese out of Angola is to drive them out the way India drove them out of Goa."

Most African delegates acknowledged, however, that force was out of the question at present and that even a call for economic penalties against the Lisbon government—as the Soviet bloc is demanding—would fall flat. They said the North Atlantic Alliance would hardly impose sanctions on one of its members.

The 50-nation Asian-African group is expected to come up with a proposal before the end of the week omitting any reference to penalties. The resolution will condemn Portugal for alleged terrorism in Angola and reaffirm Angola's right to determine its own political future.

Such a resolution is expected to win support from the United States, which reportedly believes too harsh a proposal might drive Portugal still farther into isolation.

Portugal is boycotting the assembly debate on Angola.

DiSalle Expects No Big Tax Hike

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he does not expect drastic tax increases in Ohio.

He told the final session of a day-long public seminar on state government Tuesday night that "I'm confident the present tax structure can be modified" to provide for vital state needs.

He said he was opposed to a state income tax and that the modifications he wants involve plugging taxation loopholes.

The governor urged anew for more help to education and said: "This is the most pressing need in the state today. And the people of Ohio have been apathetic about education."

"If you want a return on your investment you have to first make that investment."

2 Ohio Youths Given Stiff Terms

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP)—Prison terms totaling 31 years each are ahead for two 17-year-old Ohio Industrial School escapees as an aftermath of a break-in at a Fort Thomas home which resulted in the death of the occupant's son.

James M. Trammell of Cincinnati and Charles E. Turner of St. Paris, Ohio, pleaded guilty Tuesday to charges of felonious assault, breaking and entering and robbery.

The youths admitted breaking into the home of Anthony J. Breinich, 47, last Aug. 23 Breinich alone in the house, was battling the youths when his son, Robert, 20, returned home.

The elder Breinich broke away and obtained a pistol from a bedroom. He fired several shots, one killing his son. Trammell also was wounded.

d'état and said all Civic Union members in government posts would resign. However, associates of one of them, Foreign Minister Antonio Bonilla Atiles, said he had no plans to step out.

Radio Caribe, a government station, said the new junta will rule until Feb. 27, 1963, the date Balaguer had set for an elected government to take over.

(In Washington, a State Department spokesman described the situation in the Dominican Republic as fluid and withheld immediate comment. The United States resumed diplomatic ties with the Dominican government after the installation of the State Council.)

The junta, to rule without a president, retained two members of the deposed council—Antonio Imbert and Luis Amiamatio, prominent businessmen and the only survivors of the band of 12 that plotted Trujillo's assassination last May.

The other members are Maj. Wilfredo Medina Natal, Lt. Col. Neil Rafael Seija and Rear Adm. Enrique Valdez Vidaurte, and two government officials during the Trujillo era, Armando Oscar Pacheco and Huberto Bogart.

Unconfirmed reports said three members of the old State Council were placed under arrest. They are Rafael Bonnelly, lawyer-teacher who had been scheduled to replace Balaguer as head of government; Dr. Nicolas Pichardo, president of the University Professors' Association and a Civic Union member; and Eduardo R. Barreras, second vice president of the council and former president of the Supreme Court.

The seventh council member, Msgr. Eliseo Perez Sanchez, Roman Catholic vicar general of the nation and a long-time opponent of the Trujillo regime, was reported to have been asked to be taken prisoner also but was sent home.

Supreme Court

court held that the prescribed standard of "obscene" used in the statute is not ambiguous, as the theater manager contended.

"The test applied to determine obscenity," the court said, "is not what the individual involved deems obscene but rather what the community as a whole would consider obscene—a matter which is readily ascertainable."

"The knowledge of obscenity which is necessary to support a conviction under the statute is either actual knowledge or, where the obscenity is hard-core pornography or is a matter of common knowledge, constructive knowledge."

"The 'possession' required to support a conviction is not the mere private possession of an individual for his own gratification, but a possession for the wrongful purpose of circulating or exhibiting obscenity, whether for profit or otherwise."

"The statute on which this conviction is based is a valid exercise of the police power of the state," the decision added.

As to the sufficiency of the evidence, Judge William D. Radcliff said in his opinion:

"To me, it was 87 minutes of boredom induced by the rapid drive appearing on the screen and three minutes of complete revulsion during the showing of an act of perverted obscenity."

"The 'Lovers' was not hard-core pornography, that is filth for filth's sake. It was worse. It was filth for money's sake."

The opinion noted that there was no inconsistency between the court's judgment in the two cases involving the same film, because charges were brought under different sections of the law.

In his opinion, Radcliff said:

"It is not conceivable to us that a violation of Section 2905.34 is committed the moment an individual discovers that a book, picture or film in his possession is pornography."

"He could only be said to violate the law when and if he forms the purpose to use, exhibit or sell it wrongfully . . ."

Radcliff referred to an oft-quoted cliché to the effect that "it is not possible to legislate in the field of morals."

He cited the 18th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution as a classic example of that observation.

"We sorrowfully agree that this is true," Radcliff said, "but the impossibility of accomplishing that which is good for all the people should not and must not be used as an excuse for failing to try."

"The condition of City Hall is a disgrace," Mayor William F. Walsh said in ordering the "stem to stern, soap and water" operation.

Police headquarters is slated for a similar cleaning job after the job at City Hall is completed.

Solons Study Workings of Pinball Gadget

WASHINGTON (AP)—Take an austere congressional hearing room. Bring in a couple of garish pinball machines. Set them to chugging and dinging, banging and whirring, winking and blinking, and what have you got?

You have a row of congressmen grinning like a bunch of kids who know they're not supposed to smile in church, but can't help noticing the minister is still wearing his bedroom slippers.

That was the situation Tuesday with the House Interstate Commerce Committee. The amused smiles didn't last long, because the subject at hand was serious—a proposed law to ban gambling type pinball machines that can't be touched under current federal laws.

Lawyer Rufus King demonstrated the difference between an amusement type pinball machine, made by one of his clients, and a gambling type that looks much the same but has an electronic inside that "looks like the control section of an ICBM rocket."

King said his client, the Gottlieb Co. of Chicago, and the American Bar Association supports the proposed measure to ban interstate shipment of the gambling machines and require their makers to register with the Justice Department.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy earlier told the committee organized crime is making hundreds of millions of dollars a year out of these machines and it is time to tighten the federal laws against them.

Roy Kitchen, 40, Ashville, was fined $50 and costs for reckless operation. He was cited by South Bloomfield Police.

Three drivers arrested by the State Highway Patrol were: Paul Solits, 22, Route 2, Mantua, O.; $15 and costs for following another vehicle too closely.

Chamber Speaker Describes Enslavement by Communists

The many cruelties under Communism were described in detail to Circleville area residents last night by a man who suffered for 9 1/2 years in Russian slave labor camps and prisons.

A capacity crowd of about 300 persons was on hand to hear John Noble tell of his harrowing years under Communist domination. His talk was a highlight of the annual meeting of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce, conducted at the First EUB Service Center.

Noble, a native of Detroit, Mich., finally was granted his freedom in 1954 through the personal efforts of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. His enslavement took him to many parts of Russia and provided him a keen insight to the standards of Communism.

The speaker's ordeal began in World War II when he was interned in Nazi Germany. He was taken prisoner by the Russians after the war, shuttled from one slave camp to another and finally ended up at Vorkuta on the northern fringes of Siberia.

Noble often mentioned that there is no foundation in Communism such as we know in the American way of life. He termed the Red doctrine as being "built on a lie" and noted that the only way to offset the menace is to strive for truth.

He defined Khrushchev's favorite comment "we will catch up with America" as ridiculous. Russian socialism is not working and never will, he added.

Speaking in a serious tone, Noble said America should not follow a policy of compromise and tension easing. He said the Communists will take one step backward and move 50 forward in such matters.

Author of two books and the principal subject of anationally televised show on his experiences, Noble told how he "found God" during his years as a slave of the Communists.

He said America must face the drastic changes that must be made if the problem is to be overcome. He said we must utilize sources of combat through the word of God and profound patriotism.

According to Noble, he is the only one of eight Americans returned from Communist prisons who is free to tell of his experiences. He strongly criticized the manner in which the others have been suppressed in America for viewing their opinions.

LOCAL Chamber of Commerce officials made tapes of the complete talk. They will be made available to area groups and organizations by contacting the Chamber office.

The program for the evening was arranged by David Yates, Chamber vice president, and Mrs. Cincinnatians Rap Proposed Tax Law

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Convention and Visitors Bureau today urged its members to oppose enactment of a law which would eliminate "legitimate business entertaining" as a tax deduction expense.

Last year President Kennedy urged enactment of such legislation and a bill now is before the House Ways and Means Committee for final approval.

A bulletin sent to all convention bureau members said such organizations as the American Hotel Association, National Restaurant Association and several unions have expressed opposition to the proposal.

The convention bureau's bulletin expressed belief the proposed law would mean fewer suppliers would attend or exhibit at trade shows and that "it could mean the end of many successful conventions and trade shows."

Good Line Play Curbed

In one field of endeavor there's certainly no threat of unemployment — football officiating.

As a matter of fact, under the new safety rules adopted by the National Alliance Football Rules Committee, it may be difficult to find the players among the officials. The committee adopted four rules:

No locking of hands in defensive blocking; the hand and forearm must be in advance of the elbow in contacting an offensive player; on offense the elbow cannot move faster than the body, and the hands and arms must not be used in blocking a defender above the shoulder.

Anybody who has played football will recognize what this does to line-play. It makes good blocking next to impossible which means that the rules are not going to be obeyed.

Thus the high schools are going to have to either ignore the rules or hire a whole platoon of watchers, measurers and timers for elbows. Fortunately, there will be no shortage of former coaches for officiating jobs — those who give up coaching because it has become so difficult to keep up with the ridiculous rules.

Red Slip Showing

Soviet propagandists have been having days when nothing seems to go right.

First, there was the picture supposedly showing atrocities being committed in the Ukraine by troops under Gen Adolf Heusinger. Turned out they were Japanese burning a village in China.

Then that old bolshevik curmudgeon Vyacheslav Molotov crossed up the public information boys or was himself double-crossed. The Kremlin still cannot explain why he missed the Vienna Express or whether his ultimate destination will be Austria or Siberia.

It would be foolish to attach much significance to these slips. Communists are human enough to err. If they hadn't made a mistake in the first place, they wouldn't be communists.

Same Old Story

As has happened often in recent years, the federal government again faces financial embarrassment unless the ceiling on the mountainous national debt is raised. It's the old story — lots of bills to pay and cash running dangerously low.

Congress, which authorizes the spending in the first place, is expected to oblige with another increase in the debt limit, as it has eight times in the last seven years.

This is the situation: The government owes more than $297 billion. It can legally borrow less than a billion more before it hits the "temporary" statutory ceiling. Managers of the national debt feel more comfortable with a working margin of $3 billion or more.

Congress will probably authorize an increase of about $3 billion, above the present ceiling, pushing it up to $301 billion. The highest the ceiling has ever been was $300 billion during World War II.

For those in Congress who regard heavy government spending as the way to economic growth, raising the debt limit is just a bookkeeping operation. But for others who believe that the government, like everybody else, should live within its means, raising the ceiling has become a painful, though necessary, ritual.

The irony of it lies in the fact that legalizing an increase in the debt is a mere formality that has been forced by congressional spending, much of it on the wild side.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Kennedy Administration is giving the old college try in its hope of changing the pattern of prime labor crises.

Americans are used by now to important labor-management negotiations going down to the final deadline for strike, with tension mounting over possible calamities to companies, workers and public alike. The suspense often takes a toll itself—in nerves, in bitterness, in money, in economic disruption.

In the upcoming steel contract talks, widely labeled this year as crucial, the administration is hoping to get a pact well in advance of the July 1 strike deadline. The public would doubtless be the gainer, especially if the hurried-up talks don't set off another inflationary wage-price spiral.

Those in 1-y are considered usable in an emergency. Like when there isn't anybody else.

The new 1-y is a sort of marginal 4-f. Not usable enough.

Those classified 1-y are considered semi-fit. The tread may be showing but they still retain air.

The 1-y classification makes 4-f a lot more selective. For 4-f you've got to be susceptible to everything but drafts.

Classification 1-y will be a sort of never-never land. Never got in, never got out.

In a nuclear war, the Army is the safest place to be. It's the city you want to get out of.

The 1962 fashions were shown recently in Rome. The first robin' of spring.

It is claimed that Italian designers have the knack of flattering the figure. In one transaction they flat ten the hip of both the woman and husband.

This year's fashions feature what is called the elegant silhouette. That means they keep your outline in line.

"A dress is only important for what it does for a woman," says designer Renato Balestra. For one thing, it keeps men from knowing what she looks like when she first gets up.

Balestra says women don't want "stiff, complicated styles that hamper freedom of movement." If they can't get around, they can't get a square.

As for longer skirts, Balestra says "women won't stand for them." And in any other position they look even worse.

High fashion, it's called. It's the man who pays.

a little if the goals the President set in his news conference Monday can be reached, human nature being what it is.

The President wants the early pact to halt a buildup in steel inventories already under way and likely to get up steam if the talks later should appear headed for deadlock. Such a buildup could upset the time table of the current recovery, and a subsequent let-down could disrupt the economy.

It is only natural for both labor and management negotiators to want to use any tool they can to win their points. One traditional tool is an approaching deadline whose increasing nearness inspires concessions to avoid a strike. Neither side would want a strike if it could get in other ways the concessions on which it has set its heart.

While the administration strives to get the steel talks under way and hopes for an early pact, it is urging steel users to avoid piling up steel stocks. Their increased orders, apparently for a hedge against a possible strike, has sent steel output to its highest weekly volume since early April 1960.

It is to the steel users advantage to avoid piling up stocks beyond their current needs, the Iron Age points out today. The metal-working weekly says this would ease pressure on the market, eliminate the cost of carrying heavy stocks, and help prevent a possible business decline in the final months of the year, which would hurt them along with many others.

But the magazine also notes that many steel users feel they can't afford to gamble on any evidence to date that there won't be a strike or a hike in prices as a result of it or of a pact averting it. Company executives feel they can't afford to be caught without steel.

MOST INCONTROVERTIBLE STATEMENT of the year was made by a 15-year old on an essay submitted to a students' prize contest on the subject of "Prehistoric Times." "In prehistoric times," he stated boldly, "books were very scarce."

There's a fellow down in Asbury Park who vows he hasn't spoken to his wife in four months. He remains cheerful, however. "I'm confident—and you can quote me on this," says he, "that my turn will soon be due."

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.
Dear Doctor: Is baking soda good for a cold?

Mrs. A.H. (Calif.)

Dear Mrs. H.: It's much better for baking!
With aspirin, fluids and rest, most colds disappear in a week. Add baking soda and they clear in seven days!

Dear Doctor: What's the difference between thyroid and iodine tablets?
Mrs. H.M. (Conn)

Dear Mrs. M.: Thyroid tablets contain thyroid hormone; iodine pills contain only iodine — one ingredient in the hormone.

Thyroid pills can replace missing hormone, but iodine works only when iodine deficiency slows down thyroid activity. And when thyroid machinery races out of control, iodine can tangle the gears and slow it down.

Dear Doctor: Why should I "black out" twice every two weeks? It may happen any time. Is this change of life?

Mrs. H.S. (Ohio)

Dear Mrs. S.: Possibly. When

circulation can't deliver all the sugar and oxygen that brain cells need, you feel faint. A flickle blood pressure, topped off with change of life or early pregnancy, can start you fainting. The fluctuating pressure may swing too low to deliver blood up to your head.

Many other conditions can make you faint, too — even an overtight corset! Your doctor or dressmaker can tell!

Dear Doctor: Why should my kidney trouble make me swell more on hot humid days?

Mrs. A.R. (Ga.)
Dear Mrs. R.: Because extra blood flows through the skin to help give off body heat. You balloon out as this extra fluid bloats your swollen skin.

If the weather weren't so humid, perspiration would evaporate and you could sweat out most of your problem!

Dear Doctor: Every morning I wake up queasy and jumpy and can't eat for two hours.

Is this pyloric (stomach) spasm?
Mrs. M.T. (Fla.)

Dear Mrs. T.: Pyloric spasm would make you upchuck after each meal. Perhaps nervous tension makes your heart jump and stomach wiggle until you feel queasy.

Or maybe your stomach creeps up into the chest at night. Then that first glass of water should wash it back down and calm queasiness.

Only your doctor can tell.

Encouraging Student Reaction

By George Sokolsky

It is interesting to study a recent poll taken at Yale concerning the Cold War. The students differ from the President, who is more optimistic. The students get a side-glance view of the picture, but what they say is not to be ignored. For instance, the Yale boys answer thus:

"Which side is gaining in the Cold War?"

10 per cent U.S. and the West
75 per cent Russia and the Communist bloc
11 per cent Neither
4 per cent Don't know."

The President's State of the Union speech has the United States way ahead in the Cold War, although a year ago we were behind. His data is conclusive and encouraging. The students could not know until the President told them what he had done to achieve such a result as this:

"But our strength may be tested at many levels. We intend to have at all times the capacity to resist non-nuclear, or limited, attacks as a complement to our nuclear capacity, not as a substitute.

"Thus we have doubled the number of ready combat divisions in the Army's Strategic Reserve, increased our troops in Europe, built up the Marines, added new sealift and airlift capacity, modernized our weapons and ammunition, expanded our anti-air warfare forces and increased the active fleet by more than seventy vessels and our tactical Air Forces by nearly a dozen wings."

Maybe the President should have spoken earlier because what he says is what the students want to hear. It is heart-warming that our young people are neither discouraged nor frightened. In fact, we are ready to meet the problems that face us. These Yale questions and answers are exciting:

"In regard to the overall military strength of the two blocs, do you think that the U. S. is:

2 per cent Much stronger than Russia
38 per cent Stronger than Russia
15 per cent Weaker than Russia

0 Much weaker than Russia
7 per cent Don't know
"Should the U. S. become more aggressive in the Cold War?"

86 per cent Yes."

Anyone who listened to President Kennedy's speech cannot possibly assume that he believes that the United States is weaker than Soviet Russia. In fact, every statement he made gave the prospect and the hope that we can meet every obstacle that Soviet Russia places in our path. We are ready to meet Russia — not to wait for others to lead. The President agrees with the students that 1962 is the time.

It is interesting that when older generations are questioned, they express fear of another war; the younger people, who have to give their lives in any war to come, do not fear war. They fear only the loss of freedom. It grows increasingly clear that youth in this country has moved far away from the Communist propaganda of the 1930's. Although it is too early and too optimistic to believe that the Communist effort in the United States has utterly failed, it is correct to believe that the Communists no longer are making headway.

Youth has gone conservative as compared to the 1930's. The danger is that it may be misled by reactionaries who are a wild peril to any nation, as great a peril as the Communists. Nevertheless there is hope that the reactionaries will be met as effectively as the Communists have been. Under the Presidency of John F. Kennedy, it is to be hoped that a conservative realism will rescue this nation from the menace of reaction. At any rate, one battle seems to have been won; we shall not lose the other.

This the Yale survey makes clear. In the 1930's and 1940's the response to the identical questions would not have been the same. In fact, Yale was one of the universities where conservatives found themselves welcome. The ghost of Hitler lay like a shroud over the minds of teachers and students alike. This attitude is now lessened if not gone.

In some universities the attitude is one of indifference, of apathy, of resentment at wasted years because of war and the prospect of war. Nevertheless, the Russian effort to win American opinion for its inglorious gospel has made no forward strides. Our youth has turned upon the devilry of Communism with hate for something ugly and hopeless.

This is a hopeful sign for the future only if some equally ugly reactionary movement does not arise to stimulate hate.

Bizerte was a haven for pirates during the Turkish rule of that country, from the 16th to the 19th Centuries.

Encouraging Student Reaction

It is interesting to study a recent poll taken at Yale concerning the Cold War. The students differ from the President, who is more optimistic. The students get a side-glance view of the picture, but what they say is not to be ignored. For instance, the Yale boys answer thus:

"Which side is gaining in the Cold War?"

10 per cent U.S. and the West
75 per cent Russia and the Communist bloc
11 per cent Neither
4 per cent Don't know.

The President's State of the Union speech has the United States way ahead in the Cold War, although a year ago we were behind. His data is conclusive and encouraging. The students could not know until the President told them what he had done to achieve such a result as this:

"But our strength may be tested at many levels. We intend to have at all times the capacity to resist non-nuclear, or limited, attacks as a complement to our nuclear capacity, not as a substitute. Maybe the President should have spoken earlier because what he says is what the students want to hear. It is heart-warming that our young people are neither discouraged nor frightened. In fact, we are ready to meet the problems that face us. These Yale questions and answers are exciting:

38 per cent Stronger than Russia
15 per cent Weaker than Russia
0 Much weaker than Russia
7 per cent Don't know
"Should the U. S. become more aggressive in the Cold War?"

86 per cent Yes."

Anyone who listened to President Kennedy's speech cannot possibly assume that he believes that the United States is weaker than Soviet Russia. In fact, every statement he made gave the prospect and the hope that we can meet every obstacle that Soviet Russia places in our path. We are ready to meet Russia — not to wait for others to lead. The President agrees with the students that 1962 is the time.

It is interesting that when older generations are questioned, they express fear of another war; the younger people, who have to give their lives in any war to come, do not fear war. They fear only the loss of freedom. It grows increasingly clear that youth in this country has moved far away from the Communist propaganda of the 1930's. Although it is too early and too optimistic to believe that the Communist effort in the United States has utterly failed, it is correct to believe that the Communghost of Hitler lay like a shroud over the minds of teachers and students alike. This attitude is now lessened if not gone.

In some universities the attitude is one of indifference, of apathy, of resentment at wasted years because of war and the prospect of war. Nevertheless, the Russian effort to win American opinion for its inglorious gospel has made no forward strides. Our youth has turned upon the delivry of Communism with hate for something ugly and hopeless.

This is a hopeful sign for the future only if some equally ugly reactionary movement does not arise to stimulate hate.

Dem Leaders To Split School Aid Measure

College Assistance To Get First Crack At OK by Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic leaders announced after a meeting with President Kennedy Tuesday they will press legislation for federal aid to colleges as a separate measure from federal funds for public schools.

Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said chances for approval of school legislation appeared better by splitting the two and taking up the college measure first.

The speaker and other Democratic congressional leaders met with Kennedy at the first of this congressional session's weekly breakfasts at the White House.

"The important thing is to separate the higher education bill," McCormack told reporters.

Both the college and public school aid proposals were bogged down last year in the House Rules Committee. They were victims of a controversy over whether to include aid for parochial schools in the general education measure.

President Kennedy took a stand that aid to church schools was of doubtful constitutionality, but many Roman Catholic leaders insisted parochial schools should have help if federal funds went to public schools.

McCormack, a Roman Catholic as is Kennedy, was one of those who backed aid for parochial schools.

The administration has recommended spending $2.5 billion over the next three years on public school construction and teacher salaries. Its higher education bill would provide $2 billion over a period of years for college buildings and scholarships.

McCormack was asked if the strategy of dealing first with higher education and putting aside the public school proposal for a while was entirely agreeable to Kennedy, who has urged Congress to approve both bills. McCormack said it was "not discussed except in a general way."

Asked whether the order of attack indicated the Democratic leadership would press more diligently for aid to colleges than to public schools, McCormack said no—that "from the tactical opposition to the higher education bill is not as strong as to the general education bill." From that standpoint, he said, it would be "logical" to move first on the higher education proposal.

"This does not mean there will not be a determined effort to get the general school bill out of committee," McCormack said.

Lausche Opponent's Petitions Refused

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown notified Raymond W. Beringer of Toledo today that his petitions were insufficient to qualify as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator in the primary election.

Brown said single signatures on petitions from Ashland, Carroll, Summit and Tuscarawas counties were found invalid, leaving Beringer with petitions from only 29 counties, one short of the required number.

Beringer filed petitions carrying 1,184 names from 33 counties. To qualify, candidates must have between 1,000 and 5,000 valid signatures from at least 30 counties.

U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, who has announced for reelection, has yet to file as the only remaining Democratic candidate.

Ohio River-Erie Canal Is Debated

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Congressmen, representatives of the Youngstown steel industry, railroad representatives and a minister pleading the cause of a village that would be buried by a proposed Lake Erie-to-Ohio River Canal...

These were among the witnesses who presented widely divergent views on the proposed waterway at a hearing conducted by the Army Corps of Engineers here Monday.

Vigorous opposition came from John C. Bane of Pittsburgh, representing the Upper Ohio Valley Association, which is dominated by the railroads.

He said the waterway would cost "a billion and one-third dollars and 50 million dollars a year to operate."

"The Panama Canal didn't cost that," said Bane. "Neither did the St. Lawrence Seaway."

The loss to the railroads in freight shipments would come to $100 million a year, Bane said, adding that for $100 million the government could build a railroad along the proposed canal route and haul ore and coal free of charge for many years.

A labor management team from the Youngstown area presented a plea for the canal. James P. Griffin, director of District 26 of the United Steelworkers of America, said the Youngstown-Warren area "is slowly and surely dying, and the railroads are chiefly responsible."

The area has more than 20,000 unemployed steelworkers, he said, because the plants cannot compete with those located where public funds have built waterways. He referred specifically to the Delaware River Valley and the Chicago area.

The Rev. David W. Clark, Congregational minister from Austintown, presented a dramatic statement.

District Scout Fund Kick-Off Starts Feb. 8

The public phase of the $750,000 Boy Scout Camp Capital Development Fund will be kicked off in the Pickaway District on Feb. 8 at 7:30 p. m. at Circleville High School, according to an announcement made today by Dr. Richard Heckert, plant manager at DuPont and district campaign chairman.

At that time section chairmen, their captains and workers will gather to hear the camping needs of Boy Scouts in the Central Ohio Council and select their prospects.

Solicitation will begin immediately after the meeting among individuals, commercial firms and small industries within the district and will continue until the first week in March.

Money raised in this campaign will be used to construct two camp sites on the 1,126 acre Greenhills Reservation in Hocking County, to rehabilitate and remodel Camp Lazarus in Delaware County and to erect minimum facilities in the five short-term or weekend camps now operated by the Council.

The initial phase of this campaign was launched in the Council shortly before the end of the year and has already produced $250,000 in subscriptions.

PTA Meet Scheduled

ment, saying he was not an expert in engineering and water resource but only in "the agony, fears and sufferings of human beings."

He said there will be "cries of human anguish" if Austintown, a village of 1,500, "is forced to sacrifice its famous and historic institutions, to dissolve its businesses, abandon its homesteads, desert its care of the dead, forsake its farmlands, sell its livestock, uproot its orchards, forego its potential, re-establish its aged, transfer its youth, seek new employment, new homes, new churches, new centers." Austintown would be flooded if the canal is constructed.

Although many witnesses asked that hearings be held in their areas, Col. Bert DeMecker, head of the Pittsburgh Corps office, said no further hearings are planned.

Route of the proposed canal would run from west of Ashtabula on Lake Erie to Rochester, Pa., through the Grand, Mahoning and Beaver river valleys.

An important feature on the 105-mile waterway would be a Grand River reservoir. Several communities and 120 square miles of land would be flooded to make that reservoir. Seven locks would lift shipping from the lake into the 30-mile-long reservoir and over the Great Divide. Eight locks on the other side would bring the vessels down to the river.

Rep. Michael J. Kirwan, the leadoff witness Monday, called the railroad spokesmen "muscle men" and called Ohio and Pennsylvania "two of the most backward states." He said Ohio "has Lake Erie and the Ohio River and hasn't done a thing to improve it in 30 years."

Others who spoke in favor of the canal included: Hudson Biery of Cincinnati, executive vice president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, and Robert E. Scott of Cambridge, general counsel of the Ohio Coal Association.

Opponents included Edward M. Simmons, city manager of Sandusky, David DeLuca, city manager of Ashtabula; Dean E. Sheldon, city manager of Huron, and John H. McLain, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of greater Pittsburgh.

Copters To Assist Glenn in Landing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Helicopters play a key role in plans for recovering astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. and his Mercury capsule after the proposed orbital flights around the earth.

This time rescue teams aboard the helicopter intend to jump into the sea and attach a collar—like a huge life preserver—to the spacecraft as a safeguard against loss of the capsule by sinking, as in the case of astronaut Virgil I. Grissom's capsule.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said, with the next Mercury launch date fast approaching, that the techniques for recovery will be much the same as those employed last year in the suborbital flights of Alan B. Shepard Jr., and Grissom.

Quick Meat Pies Help Make Easy and Appetizing Meals

By ALICE DENHOFF

The busy homemaker invariably has need for additions to her recipe file of dishes that are both time-saving and nutritious.

Good, tasty meat pies certainly qualify on all scores, pies such as the following.

HERBED HAMBURGER PIE

1/4 c. chopped green pepper
1/4 c. instant minced onion, softened in 1/4 c. water
1 1/2 tsp. butter
1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
1 8 oz. can tomato sauce
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. celery salt
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1/2 tsp. crumbled whole oregano leaves
3 medium carrots, cooked and sliced
1 c. cooked peas
1 9-inch pie crust, unbaked
6 pastry diamonds, unbaked (optional)

Cooked carrot slices and cooked peas for garnish.

Sauté pepper and onion in butter until onion is transparent. Add meat and cook, stirring frequently, until it is gray.

Combine tomato sauce with seasonings and add to meat.

Place carrot slices on bottom of pie crust; add half the meat mixture. Add peas and top with remaining meat.

Arrange pastry diamonds on top of pie, if used. Bake for 1 hour at 375 degrees F.

Garnish with carrot slices and peas. Serve with your favorite mushroom or tomato sauce. Serves 6.

Or you might like this excellent, quickly prepared main dish.

SAVORY STEW

2 cans beef stew (20-oz. each)
1 (No. 2) can mixed vegetables
1 tsp. instant minced onion
1/4 tsp. ground marjoram leaves
1/4 tsp. garlic powder
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1 tsp. salt
1 can (8 oz.) prepared biscuits

Combine all ingredients except biscuits. Turn into 1-qt. casserole; top with biscuits. Bake at 425 degrees F. 45 minutes, or until biscuits are brown and thoroughly cooked on the bottom.

Cover with aluminum foil if the biscuits are browned too much before the bottoms are cooked.

Serves 6-8.

Another useful recipe is a mixture of luncheon meat and vegetables.

ONE-DISH MEAL

12 oz. can luncheon meat

Children will enjoy poached eggs more when they come in exciting shapes. Remove top and bottom from a tuna fish can, then bend the remainder of the can into a square, oblong, etc., and use it to "fence" egg while poaching.

Ever serve mock champagne? Make it from chilled muscatel and ginger ale. Or combine grapefruit juice with the ginger ale.

Scoop out whole cooked beets and fill with cream cheese mixed with minced anchovy fillets and onion. Serve with salad greens.

The national chairman requested donations of clothing for the schools. The chapter voted to collect and send a box of clothing in the near future. This is a previous project of the local chapter.

Mrs. Pugsley presented a past president's pin to Mrs. Richard Hedges who then thanked the chapter members for their assistance during her two-year term of office.

Mrs. B. T. Hedges, program chairman, presented Mrs. Sterling Croman who was guest speaker for the evening. She gave an original paper written in the first person on the "Liberty Bell". Her most interesting and informative article gave a complete account of all events in which the Liberty Bell was used. Mrs. Croman stated that although the bell was first molded in England, there were many times when it had been rung in opposition to that country's activities toward America.

The chapter gave Mrs. Croman an enthusiastic vote of thanks for such an excellent article. The members voted that the article be copied and sent to a federal agency in Washington D. C.

At the close of the meeting, a dessert course was served by Mrs. Hughes.

Quick Meat Pies Help Make Easy and Appetizing Meals

By ALICE DENHOFF

The busy homemaker invariably has need for additions to her recipe file of dishes that are both time-saving and nutritious.

Good, tasty meat pies certainly qualify on all scores, pies such as the following.

HERBED HAMBURGER PIE

1/4 c. chopped green pepper
1/4 c. instant minced onion, softened in 1/4 c. water
1 1/2 tsp. butter

1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
1 8 oz. can tomato sauce
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. celery salt
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1/4 tsp. crumbled whole oregano leaves

3 medium carrots, cooked and sliced
1 c. cooked peas
1 9-inch pie crust, unbaked
6 pastry diamonds, unbaked (optional)

Cooked carrot slices and cooked peas for garnish
Sauté pepper and onion in butter until onion is transparent. Add meat and cook, stirring frequently, until it is gray.

Combine tomato sauce with seasonings and add to meat.
Place carrot slices on bottom of pie crust; add half the meat mixture. Add peas and top with remaining meat.

Arrange pastry diamonds on top of pie, if used. Bake for 1 hour at 375 degrees F.

Garnish with carrot slices and peas. Serve with your favorite mushroom or tomato sauce. Serves 6.

Or you might like this excellent, quickly prepared main dish.

SAVORY STEW
2 cans beef stew (20-oz. each)
1 (No. 2) can mixed vegetables
1 tsp. instant minced onion
1/4 tsp. ground marjoram leaves
1/4 tsp. garlic powder
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1 tsp. salt

1 can (8 oz.) prepared biscuits
Combine all ingredients except biscuits. Turn into 1-qt. casserole; top with biscuit. Bake at 425 degrees F. 45 minutes, or until biscuits are brown and thoroughly cooked on the bottom.

Cover with aluminum foil if the biscuits are browned too much before the bottoms are cooked.

Serves 6-8.
Another useful recipe is a mixture of luncheon meat and vegetables.

ONE-DISH MEAL
12 oz. can luncheon meat

Children will enjoy poached eggs more when they come in exciting shapes. Remove top and bottom from a tuna fish can, then bend the remainder of the can into a square, oblong, etc., and use it to "fence" egg while poaching.

Ever serve mock champagne? Make it from chilled muscatel and ginger ale. Or combine grapefruit juice with the ginger ale.

Scoop out whole cooked beets and fill with cream cheese mixed with minced anchovy fillets and onion. Serve with salad greens.

2 tbsp. butter or margarine
2 tsp. flour
10 1/2 oz. can condensed tomato (undiluted)
2 c. (1 lb. can) mixed vegetables
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. black pepper
1/4 tsp. ground thyme
1/4 tsp. garlic powder
1 tsp. instant minced onion
12 baking powder biscuits (homemade or frozen)

Dice luncheon meat and set aside. Melt butter in a saucepan. Blend in flour. Add soup and cook until thickened.

Sir in vegetables, salt, pepper, thyme, garlic powder and minced onion.

Turn into a 10x6x2-inch baking pan. Top with baking powder biscuits.

Bake at 425 degrees F. 20 minutes, or until done. Serve at once. Serves 6.

Guest Speaker Highlights Club Meeting

The Rev. William G. Huber, pastor of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, was guest speaker at the Newcomer's Club meeting which was held recently in the home of Mrs. Richard Hackman, 637 Garden Parkway.

The guest speaker discussed "Marriage—Strains and Stresses" and conducted a question and answer period following the talk.

During the business session, club members voted to make the Pickaway County Exceptional (Retarded) Children's School a yearly project.

A White Elephant Sale was conducted following the business of the evening.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Hackman, Mrs. Don Crabtree and Mrs. Robert Lund. Mrs. Vernon Bell, Mrs. Margaret Davis and Mrs. Carl Franke were guests for the event.

Club members have scheduled a social event for their next meeting. This will be a dinner-dance for members and their husbands on Feb. 9 in Tink's. Mrs. William Shockley is chairman for the affair.

Children will enjoy poached eggs more when they come in exciting shapes. Remove top and bottom from a tuna fish can, then bend the remainder of the can into a square, oblong, etc., and use it to "fence" egg while poaching.

Cussins and Fearn Formally Opens New Circleville Location

Gala 3-Day Sale, Celebration Scheduled To Start Thursday

The Cussins and Fearn Co., Inc., statewide hardware and house wares firm, operating 46 stores in Ohio will formally open its newest modern super-mart type store at 129 W. Main St., tomorrow.

Formerly located at 122 N. Court St. in Circleville, the Cussins and Fearn organization has been well known since opening its first store here in 1928.

Special features and opening sale will continue 3-days only, Thursday through Saturday. Extended shopping hours from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. will be in effect for the duration of the celebration.

With the new facilities, a program of extended services will be available to both old and new customers. The remodeled and enlarged quarters will not only permit faster, more enjoyable shopping, but will allow the firm to stock and display a wider selection of nationally advertised brands at lower than discount house prices.

FAST self-service will be featured with capable assistance from trained sales people, if desired. Rapid checkout counters will also save customers in a hurry valuable time. Many familiar local residents will be employed.

In completing arrangements for lease of the Main St. location with Mr. J. W. Crist, an addition was made to the existing structure greatly increasing the first floor space. Together with other improvements it brings to Circleville a store which ranks with the largest and finest in the Cussins and Fearn group.

STORE MANAGER — Jim Cundiff, manager of the Cussins and Fearn store here, cordially invites all residents of Circleville and surrounding areas to stop in and browse around the new showroom. He will be ably assisted in his managerial duties by James Wilcox, formerly of Dover, O.

Service Is A Specialty

"We are dedicated to helping our customers in every way," said James Wilcox, assistant manager at Cussins and Fearn.

"Many are not fully aware of the extra services available. In addition to our own time payment plan and free delivery on purchases over $15, we provide repair facilities on all the appliances we sell," he added.

Trained sales people are on duty at all times to assist with home building, remodeling or repairing problems. Free estimates on plumbing, heating, roofing, storm doors, storm windows, awnings and many other jobs are given without obligation.

Labor for the completed project can also be arranged. In our auto accessory department, tires and batteries are installed absolutely free.

"I WANT to emphasize," Wilcox said, "that everything possible will be done to make shopping in our new Cussins and Fearn store a pleasure."

The special store hours of 9 a.m. 'til 9 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday have been arranged to enable everyone to attend the opening.

Ray Wunderlich, president, said Cussins and Fearn does not offer low prices alone. "Along with them go the advantages of time and other services which many firms do not offer."

Building Enlarged, Remodeled

Improvements Always Sought At C&F Stores

The pioneering spirit of the Cussins and Fearn organization brings a new improved type, mass distribution retail center to Circleville. In many ways it is different from the usual store.

Being Ohio operated, it sells many items made within the state to Ohio customers exclusively. This plus the central location of main offices and warehouse facilities in Columbus enables the firm to reduce many long distance freight costs. Savings gained are passed along to the customer.

In addition many nationally advertised brands are handled on a distributor basis with such goods being offered below factory list prices.

A large staff of Cussins and Fearn buyers are continually on the alert for new and better products to offer at lower prices. Giant 46 store purchasing power allows the company to take advantage of manufacturers' overstocks, out-of-season specials and other buying opportunities. Here again savings are shared with the customer.

EVERY Cussins and Fearn outlet is designed to be a "Better Home" department store. Featured are the most needed and most desired essentials for the home, car, yard and garden.

Everyday Discount Prices Eyed

Many other firms advertise two or three low price leaders to draw in trade, according to Ray Wunderlich, president of Cussins and Fearn.

This is not the case with Cussins and Fearn, Wunderlich added. He said the C&F's 68 years of service to the public shows it takes more than just a sign or tag marked discount to make low prices.

The Cussins and Fearn president said in 1962 the firm's stores will slash discount prices even lower, not on just a few items, but in every department. And not for just a limited time, but for every sales day in the year.

Soon copies of a new January through February catalogue, featuring more than 250 specials, will be distributed in Circleville and surrounding areas. It will list bigger savings than ever before.

But that's not all, Wunderlich said. Prices on many other items have been cut.

Cussins and Fearn Formally Opens New Circleville Location

Gala 3-Day Sale, Celebration
Scheduled To Start Thursday

The Cussins and Fearn Co., Inc., statewide hardware and house wares firm, operating 46 stores in Ohio will formally open its newest modern super-mart type store at 129 W. Main St., tomorrow.

Formerly located at 122 N. Court St. in Circleville, the Cussins and Fearn organization has been well known since opening its first store here in 1928.

Special features and opening sale will continue 3-days only, Thursday through Saturday. Extended shopping hours from 9 a.m. until 9 p. m. will be in effect for the duration of the celebration.

With the new facilities, a program of extended services will be available to both old and new customers. The remodeled and enlarged quarters will not only permit faster, more enjoyable shopping, but will allow the firm to stock and display a wider selection of nationally advertised brands at lower than discount house prices.

FAST self-service will be featured with capable assistance from trained sales people, if desired. Rapid checkout counters will also save customers-in-a hurry valuable time. Many familiar local residents will be employed.

In completing arrangements for lease of the Main St. location with Mr. J. W. Crist, an addition was made to the existing structure greatly increasing the first floor space. Together with other improvements it brings to Circleville a store which ranks with the largest and finest in the Cussins and Fearn group.

STORE MANAGER — Jim Cundiff, manager of the Cussins and Fearn store here, cordially invites all residents of Circleville and surrounding areas to stop in and browse around the new showroom. He will be assisted in his managerial duties by James Wilcox, formerly of Dover, O.

Service Is A Specialty

"We are dedicated to helping our customers in every way," said James Wilcox, assistant manager at Cussins and Fearn.

"Many are not fully aware of the extra services available. In addition to our own time payment plan and free delivery on purchases over $15, we provide repair facilities on all the appliances we sell," he added.

Trained sales people are on duty at all times to assist with home building, remodeling or repairing, problems. Free estimates on plumbing, heating, roofing, storm doors, storm windows, awnings and many other jobs are given without obligation.

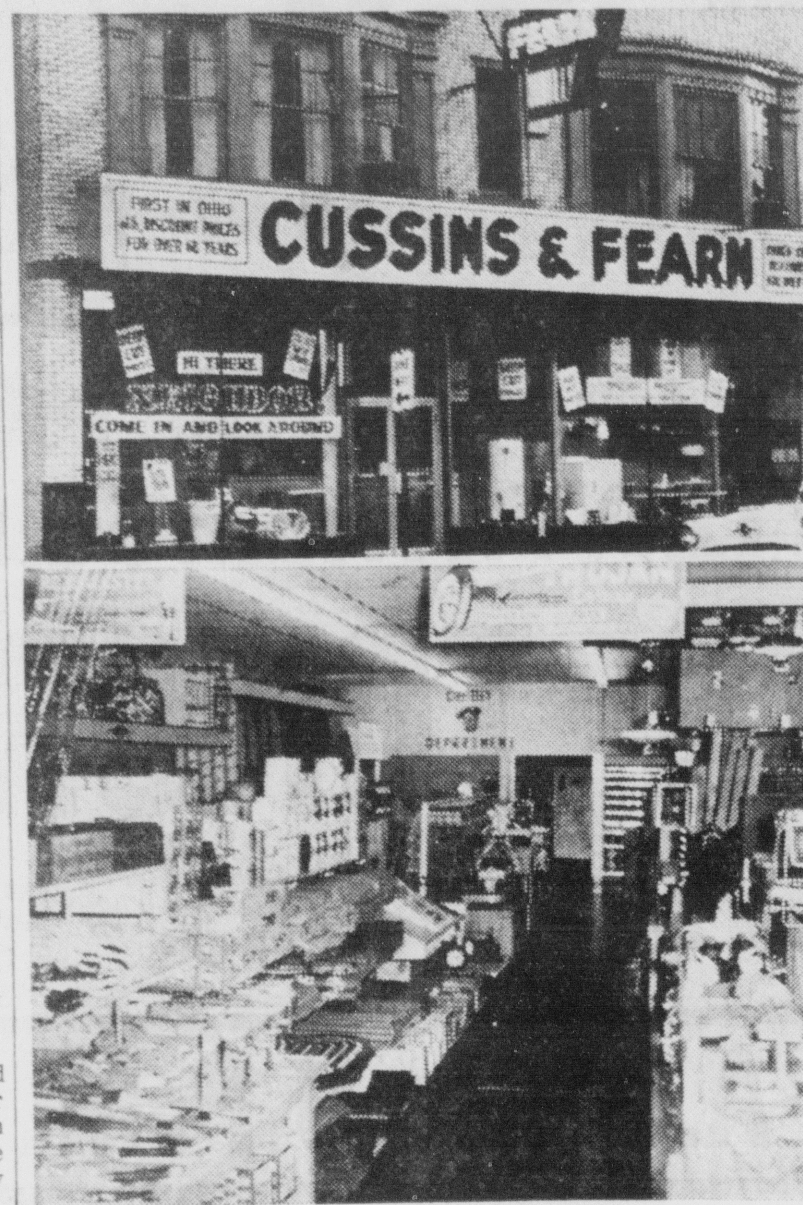

Labor for the completed project can also be arranged. In our auto accessory department, tires and batteries are installed absolutely free.

"I WANT to emphasize," Wilcox said, "that everything possible will be done to make shopping in our new Cussins and Fearn store a pleasure."

The special store hours of 9 a. m. 'til 9 p. m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday have been arranged to enable everyone to attend the opening.

Ray Wunderlich, president, said Cussins and Fearn does not offer low prices alone. "Along with them go the advantages of time and other services which many firms do not offer.

Building Enlarged, Remodeled

Improvements
Always Sought
At C&F Stores

The pioneering spirit of the Cussins and Fearn organization brings a new improved type, mass distribution retail center to Circleville. In many ways it is different from the usual store.

Being Ohio operated, it sells many items made within the state to Ohio customers exclusively. This plus the central location of main offices and warehouse facilities in Columbus enables the firm to reduce many long distance freight costs. Savings gained are passed along to the customer.

In addition many nationally advertised brands are handled on a distributor basis with such goods being offered below factory list prices.

A large staff of Cussins and Fearn buyers are continually on the alert for new and better products to offer at lower prices. Giant 46 store purchasing power allows the company to take advantage of manufacturers' overstocks, out-of-season specials and other buying opportunities. Here again savings are shared with the customer.

EVERY Cussins and Fearn outlet is designed to be a "Better Home" department store. Featured are the most needed and most desired essentials for the home, car, yard and garden.

U.S. Red Ban Irks Britain

British Seek To Sell Airlines to Chinese

LONDON (AP)—Britain today asked Ambassador Sir David Ormsby-Gore to make inquiries in Washington about the latest United States move to impede the sale of six Viscount airliners to Red China, a $9.8 million deal.

A Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen the British government was not informed in advance of a letter setting out the American government's position.

This letter was sent to Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., by Frederick G. Dutton, assistant secretary of state for congressional relations.

The letter stated that an American company whose British subsidiary normally supplies navigation equipment for the Viscounts had been warned by the U.S. government not to supply such equipment in the case of the six airliners earmarked for China.

Washington and London have been engaged in a tug-of-war about these airliners which are built by Vickers.

Until recently Peiping had always made its airline purchases in the Soviet Union. The fact that Chinese Communists were now willing to buy Western airliners was regarded in London as one more indication of a strained relationship between Moscow and Peiping.

The U.S. government has never been happy about the sale. British authorities said several weeks ago that only some navigational aids in the plane could be regarded as coming under the embargo on the equipment of strategic goods to the Chinese Communists.

Envoy Urges Head-on Clash With Reds

LAFAYETTE, IND. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Charles W. Yost said today the only way to deal with the Communist threat in the United Nations or elsewhere is to meet it head on.

The United States faced up to the Communists in the U.N. General Assembly last fall with successful results on many counts, Yost said in a speech prepared for delivery at a public affairs conference at Purdue University.

Yost is a member of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations.

Among the Western successes, Yost said were:

1. Election of an independent acting secretary-general free of any veto rein.
2. A strengthening of the U.N. Congo operation.
3. Defeat of the Soviet attempt to seat Red China.
4. Approval of a $200-million bond issue to pay off U.N. debts.
5. Condemnation of Red China's oppression of Tibet and continued Soviet activity in Hungary.

U.S. Red Ban Irks Britain

British Seek To Sell Airlines to Chinese

LONDON (AP)—Britain today asked Ambassador Sir David Ormsby-Gore to make inquiries in Washington about the latest United States move to impede the sale of six Viscount airliners to Red China, a $9.8 million deal.

A Foreign Office spokesman told newsmen the British government was not informed in advance of a letter setting out the American government's position.

This letter was sent to Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., by Frederick G. Dutton, assistant secretary of state for congressional relations.

The letter stated that an American company whose British subsidiary normally supplies navigation equipment for the Viscounts had been warned by the U.S. government not to supply such equipment in the case of the six airliners earmarked for China.

Washington and London have been engaged in a tug-of-war about these airliners which are built by Vickers.

Until recently Peiping had always made its airline purchases in the Soviet Union. The fact that Chinese Communists were now willing to buy Western airliners was regarded in London as one more indication of a strained relationship between Moscow and Peiping.

The U.S. government has never been happy about the sale. British authorities said several weeks ago that only some navigational aids in the plane could be regarded as coming under the embargo on the equipment of strategic goods to the Chinese Communists.

Envoy Urges Head-on Clash With Reds

LAFAYETTE, IND. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Charles W. Yost said today the only way to deal with the Communist threat in the United Nations or elsewhere is to meet it head on.

The United States faced up to the Communists in the U.N. General Assembly last fall with successful results on many counts, Yost said in a speech prepared for delivery at a public affairs conference at Purdue University.

Yost is a member of the U.S. delegation to the United Nations. Among the Western successes, Yost said were:

1. Election of an independent acting secretary-general free of any veto rein.
2. A strengthening of the U.N. Congo operation.
3. Defeat of the Soviet attempt to seat Red China.
4. Approval of a $200-million bond issue to pay off U.N. debts.
5. Condemnation of Red China's oppression of Tibet and continued Soviet activity in Hungary.

Recreational Future Seen
For Farm Land

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is counting on what it says is a growing public appetite for outdoor recreational facilities to help solve a major problem: What to do with too much farm land.

At the present time, the government is paying farmers about $1 billion a year to retire land under soil bank and feed grain programs.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman told a National Land Conference Monday that idling crop land under these programs is not the best way to stabilize agriculture, make efficient use of land resources or cut federal spending.

He said the administration feels that better solutions to these problems could be found if surplus land could be diverted to new income earning uses. Special emphasis would be placed on hunting, fishing, swimming, boating and camping facilities for an increasing population which would be asked to pay for these facilities as it used them.

Freeman said this idea will be proposed in a new land use program President Kennedy will send to Congress in a forthcoming farm message.

Walter B. Garver, manager of the Agricultural Department of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, told the conference he doubted the wisdom of counting heavily on future public demand for outdoor recreational facilities. He said people's taste in use of leisure time tend to change.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau reports that its 1959 census of agriculture showed an average age for all farmers of 50.5 years.

Among commercial farm operators the average age was 48.6 years. Part-time farm operators averaged 46.4 years and operators of part-retirement farms averaged 71.1 years.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A report of the International Cotton Advisory Committee indicates there should be stability in cotton prices and supplies through most of this year, at least.

The report said world cotton production during the 1961-62 season was in balance with prospective needs.

'All-or-Nothing'
Defense Idea Hit

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Maxwell Taylor, echoing President Kennedy's recent rejection of "all-or-nothing" defense, says the nation must be wary of becoming "muscle-bound with our nuclear strength."

Taylor, military adviser to the President, declared "we cannot afford to gear our plans to any single weapons system or to any single dogmatic concept of how the future will develop."

He said the United States must be prepared to cope with general atomic war, limited atomic war, conventional war and guerrilla warfare.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Can You Top This?

DEAR ABBY: The man I love is married to someone else-but not by choice. He has begged his wife for a divorce ever since he met me eight years ago, but she will not give in. She uses her children as her first line of defense. I would like to surprise him with a divorce as a gift, but don't know how to go about it. I have plenty of money for the lawyer, and am willing to pay whatever it costs to get this done in another state fast, without any public notices. In what state can I do this?

NO TIME TO WASTE
DEAR NO TIME: The only state in which a woman can "surprise" an married man with a divorce is the state of delirium. If you want to give him a present, why not give him something his whole family can enjoy? His freedom-from you!

DEAR ABBY: I like a boy who I am sure likes me because all of his freinds have told me so. We are both 15. He comes over to see me very often, but he never comes alone. He always brings anywhere from one to six boys with him. When he is with his boy friends, he usually ignores me. But once in a while if I get him alone, like last night when I asked him to come in the kitchen and help me get the ice trays loose so I could make lemonade, he was just marvelous. How can I tell him I would rather see him alone without hurting his feelings?

GOT A CRUSH
DEAR GOT: You can't. And if you could, I would advise against it. The boy needs his friends around him to give him courage. He's a bit shy. Don't try to get him alone or you'll be the one who's alone.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is lending clothes to my girl freinds. I am 16 and have very nice clothes, all brought for me by my very generous parents. A few months ago a girl asked me if she could wear one of my sweaters. I let her wear it. When she didn't bring it back, I asked her for it. She told me she had already given it back to me. (She didn't.) Another girl asked to wear my stiff petticoat. I let her and then she told me she rang my door bell and no one answered, so she left it on the porch (I never found it). Now another girl wants to wear my car coat to a football game out of town. Should I punish this girl because the others were dishonest and tell her no? My parents refuse to replace what I've lost through lending.

TOO EASY
DEAR TOO EASY: Since you appear to have rather poor judgement in sizing up your "customers," you'd be wise to lend nothing. It's frequently the nice people who must suffer because the not-so-nice ones abuse friendships

Judge Raps
Bond-Posting,
Invited Appeal

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—An automobile driver should not be required to post bond to cover possible civil suit damages arising from an accident for which he is blameless, a municipal judge held today.

Judge Nathan Koplin said forcing such bond-posting is an invasion of constitutional rights. He invited the state to appeal his decision and put the issue to higher courts.

In the case involved, the state registrar of motor vehicles brought David Williams, 26, into court for failing to surrender license plates driver's license as an alternative to posting $69 in cash bond. Williams carried no insurance on his car which was involved in a minor accident a year ago.

In that accident Williams was stopped at a traffic light when the car stopped behind his was struck from the rear by a third car and pushed into Williams' car. Total damage involved exceeded $100, and in such cases bond-posting is required of uninsured drivers involved. But blame for the accident was fixed on the third-car driver who was fined for failing to stop within an assured clear distance, and an insurance company paid Williams for the slight damage to his car. It was clear, the judge held, that Williams was in no way at fault.

In that accident Williams was stopped at a traffic light when the car stopped behind his was struck from the rear by a third car and pushed into Williams' car. Total damage involved exceeded $100, and in such cases bond-posting is required of uninsured drivers involved. But blame for the accident was fixed on the third-car driver who was fined for failing to stop within an assured clear distance, and an insurance company paid Williams for the slight damage to his car. It was clear, the judge held, that Williams was in no way at fault.

DEAR ABBY: I like a boy who I am sure likes me because all of his friends have told me so. We are both 15. He comes over to see me very often, but he never comes alone. He always brings anywhere from one to six boys with him. When he is with his boy friends, he usually ignores me. But once in a while if I get him alone, like last night when I asked him to come in the kitchen and help me get the ice trays loose so I could make lemonade, he was just marvelous. How can I tell him I would rather see him alone without hurting his feelings?

GOT A CRUSH
DEAR GOT: You can't. And if you could, I would advise against it. The boy needs his friends around him to give him courage. He's a bit shy. Don't try to get him alone or you'll be the one who's alone.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is lending clothes to my girl friends. I am 16 and have very nice clothes, all brought for me by my very generous parents. A few months ago a girl asked me if she could wear one of my sweaters. I let her wear it. When she didn't bring it back, I asked her for it. She told me she had already given it back to me. (She didn't.) Another girl asked to wear my stiff petticoat. I let her and then she told me she rang my door bell and no one answered, so she left it on the porch (I never found it). Now another girl wants to wear my car coat to a football game out of town. Should I punish this girl because the others were dishonest and tell her no? My parents refuse to replace what I've lost through lending.

TOO EASY
DEAR TOO EASY: Since you appear to have rather poor judgment in sizing up your "customers," you'd be wise to lend nothing. It's frequently the nice people who must suffer because the not-so-nice ones abuse friendships.

How is the world treating you? Unload your problems on Abby, care of this paper.

Mother Earth Takes Breather From Quakes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mother Earth taking a breather from earthquakes; the possible magic of souped-up light; and aerial typewriting are among the latest subjects for science at work. Bushed-out Earth

Although plenty of major political rumblings occurred on its surface during 1961, the earth last year was comparatively quiet by the standpoint of producing internal rumblings — earthquakes, that is.

U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey seismologists told a reporter the year was a weak one for earthquakes—with only a few really big temblors occurring, and these at widely separated places.

Their explanation:

Mother Earth was, in effect, pretty bushed after rumbling in real tough fashion the year before —when she loosed such major quakes as the Chilean one that spawned a great tidal wave in the Pacific Ocean.

Souped-up Light

Keep the name LASER under your hat. Some day, devices bearing that monicker may vastly increase the range of space communication; make possible knifeless surgery; allow transmission of 100 million simultaneous telephone calls; and even provide a new form of death ray.

Navy and other scientists say such possibilities are envisioned from still highly experimental research on the LASER technique, more formally known as "Light Amplification by Stimulated Emission of Radiation."

LASER is a system for amplifying and sharpening weak waves of light to produce a very narrow, powerful beam—and the ultimate hope is to employ optical waves in much the same way radio waves are now used.

Its secret is based on the fact that if certain chemicals, gaseous or solid, are excited to emit light—for example, under the influence of an electric current—the weak light will further interact with atoms of the material. Under proper conditions, the original waves of light are thereby intensified.

Aerial Typist

Now we have skytyping by air-planes as well as the more familiar skywriting.

As described in Ethyl News, five airplanes fly parallel courses in tight formation and shoot out staccato smoke bursts electronically. The idea is to get a sky-written advertisement out fast before poor weather sets in.

In the typing technique, one central-control pilot in the squadron operates a radio transmitter which sends impulses to receivers in the other planes—triggering smoke valves.

Chillicothe Employees Suspend Their Walkout

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Striking members of the United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastics Workers Union will return to work at the Johns-Manville Co. plant pending the outcome of an NLRB hearing Feb. 27.

The employees, out since Nov. 3, suspended the strike and are expected to be back to work by next Monday. The union has filed charges of unfair labor practices against the company.

Diagnosis Comes Before Treatment

Q. My blood count is low. What iron-containing foods would bring it up? Can complications develop?

A. A low blood count can be due to many things other than lack of iron. Diagnosis comes before treatment. Visit your doctor. He will find out what's causing the anemia and prescribe whatever is necessary. There is probably a simple explanation for your low count. On the other hand, it is unwise to "treat the blood count" without proper diagnosis. In some cases such treatment will mask a serious disorder.

Sarcoidosis

Q. What is the sickness called sarcoidosis?

A. It is a disease involving lymphatic and other tissue. The exact cause is unknown but some medical investigators have related the condition to tuberculosis. However, the tuberculosis germ has never been found in the affected tissue. Fortunately, the condition can be controlled in most cases by early treatment.

Answers appearing in these columns are of necessity, brief and general in nature and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all physicians.

Prescriptions called for promptly and delivered quickly.

Vitiligo

Q. Within the last few years I have developed small white spots on my legs. The spots are more pronounced when I get tan. Is this a pigment condition?

A. Yes. The condition, called vitiligo, is harmless although it may be cosmetically undesirable. The skin in the affected areas loses pigment or coloring matter and is unable to turn darker when exposed to sunlight. The spots show up more in summer due to greater contrast between the light spot and the tanned area surrounding it.

Cataract

Q. Vision is good in my left eye but poor in the right due to cataract. Should the cataract be removed?

A. When one lens is clear and vision good in that eye, the general rule (there are certain exceptions) is that the cataract eye should not be operated upon. The reason is that even after the operation, only the good eye will be used. The inability to use both eyes together after a cataract operation in one is difficult to explain in a few words. Discuss the problem with your doctor.

Flowers are sent to do God's work

HENRY WARD BEECHER

There are times when flowers alone provide consolation.

The strength in their fragile beauty could only be the gift of God. Our faith renews itself with every blossom. The flowers you send for these hours of greatest loneliness afford a blessed comfort that will be long remembered.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the most awful things about the federal budget—and it is awful if you're not good at arithmetic—is that it will monopolize Washington conversation for quite a while.

In two plump volumes President Kennedy at noon Thursday unfolds for Congress the national budget, his estimate on the cost of running the government another year.

One of the most delightful things about Kennedy's budget, in a gruesome kind of way, is that it is supposed to be more simplified and streamlined than any budget of the past.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Winter seemed about to tighten its grip on Ohio again this morning as another cold Canadian air mass began to move toward the state.

Skies remained clear during the night except near Cleveland, where light snow flurries fell during the day. Temperatures at sunrise ranged from 5 above at Toledo to 13 at Columbus and 24 at Chesapeake.

A cold wave will engulf the northern half of the state tonight, with temperatures dropped to sub-zero. The cold weather will continue Thursday with afternoon temperatures mostly in the teens or low 20s.

Light snow or snow flurries will occur near Lake Erie.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average 17-21 degrees below normal. Normal. Normal high 34-36, normal low 18-22. Very cold until slowly moderating temperatures Saturday or Sunday, but colder Monday. Precipitation will average one-fourth to one-half inch as snow flurries Thursday and Friday and one or two snow flurries again Monday.

SOUTHER & CENTRAL OHIO — Temperatures will average 10-15 degrees below normal. Normal high 37-42, normal low 21-27. Day-to-day changes, mostly colder. Precipitation will average one-tenth or two-tenths of an inch occurring first of next week.

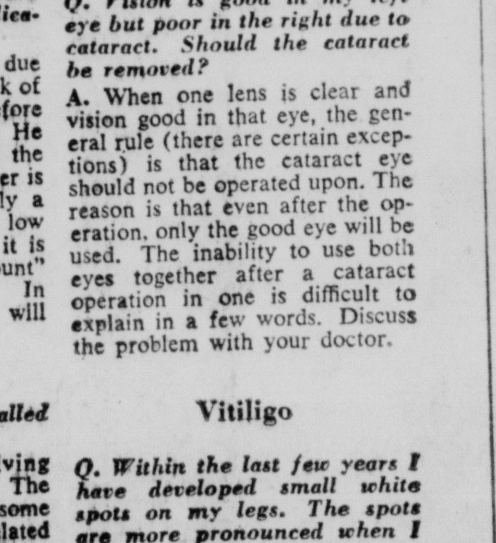

Ohio Wesleyan Starts Search for President

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — The process of screening and evaluating candidates for the vacant presidency at Ohio Wesleyan University has begun.

Louis R. Wolter of Columbus, chairman of a trustees' committee charged with seeking the new administrator, gave no indication when a successor to Dr. David A. Lockmiller, who vacated in October, will be announced.

Republican State of Union Idea Shunned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House Republican leaders have quietly vetoed National Chairman William E. Miller's effort to write a GOP state of the union message.

Miller circulated among party chieftains a 4,000-word document vigorously criticizing the Kennedy administration's record and proposing a series of political stands to be taken by Republicans in the new session of Congress.

Miller predicted 10 days ago the issuance of such a statement. He said the idea was to advance "affirmative programs" which Republican candidates could cite in the campaign as being more effective than President Kennedy's proposals.

The Republican leaders in the Senate and House, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, declined to go along with the idea.

They put the project in mothballs for possible consideration later in the year of some statement of broad principles on which a majority of Republicans could agree.

Dirksen and Halleck will continue to lay down Republican tenets in their weekly "Ev and Charlie" news conference, uninhibited by any guidelines Miller wanted defined in advance.

The first of their 1962 news conferences is scheduled for Thursday.

Youth, 17, Is Accused In Cincinnati Slaying

CINCINNATI (AP) — Frederick Wilson, 17, of Cincinnati faces grand jury action in the robbery-slaying of Robert L. Whitis, 28, a gas station attendant, Jan. 7.

Juvenile Court Judge Benjamin Schwartz Tuesday declined to hear the case and ordered Wilson held without bond for the grand jury. Wilson and two other young men were charged with murder and robbery.

The Bastian Funeral Home removed Mrs. August Schrader to Berger Hospital last Wednesday.

A dinner was given Sunday in the honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Art Deal Sr. and Jody and Jim Deal. The dinner was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Deal Jr.

2 New Dems Named To House Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Clark W. Thompson, D-Tex., and Rep. Martha W. Griffiths, D-Mich., were named today to the powerful House Ways and Means Committee. That group has jurisdiction over major portions of President Kennedy's program.

Their appointment was approved first by a Democratic party caucus and later by the House itself.

The selections meant no loss of strength to Kennedy on the committee, which divides as often along liberal-conservative as along partisan lines. But so far as could be told immediately, he picked up no positive additional support, either.

Freeman, on the other hand, has said the government cannot continue costly farm programs. He has predicted the cost of dairy supports may run to $600 million during the marketing year beginning April 1, more than double the current year.

Freeman is expected to press Congress for authority to impose dairy controls. If so he would need strong backing from the dairy industry because of opposition by some farm organizations to increased farm controls.

Dairy Group Now Seeking Rigid Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dairy industry advisers have given Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman ammunition for ditching the present federal dairy support program in favor of rigid controls on milk production.

A National Dairy Advisory Committee appointed by the secretary to advise him on what to do about a rising dairy surplus has come out with a plea that the present program be continued if at all possible. Under this program, dairymen are free to produce as much as they like, and the government must buy the surplus in the form of butter, dry milk and cheese.

Meeting with reporters at the conclusion of a two-day closed conference last week, committee chairman Lloyd Wescott of Tosemont, N.J., said in referring to the present program that dairymen "do not want to kill Santa Claus."

Freeman, on the other hand, has said the government cannot continue costly farm programs. He has predicted the cost of dairy supports may run to $600 million during the marketing year beginning April 1, more than double the current year.

Freeman is expected to press Congress for authority to impose dairy controls. If so he would need strong backing from the dairy industry because of opposition by some farm organizations to increased farm controls.

Mother Earth Takes Breather From Quakes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mother Earth taking a breather from earthquakes; the possible magic of souped-up light; and aerial typewriting are among the latest subjects for science at work. Bushed-out Earth.

Although plenty of major political rumblings occurred on its surface during 1961, the earth last year was comparatively quiet by the standpoint of producing internal rumblings — earthquakes, that is.

U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey seismologists told a reporter the year was a weak one for earthquakes—with only a few really big temblors occurring, and these at widely separated places.

Their explanation:
Mother Earth was, in effect, pretty bushed after rumbling in real tough fashion the year before —when she loosed such major quakes as the Chilean one that spawned a great tidal wave in the Pacific Ocean.

Souped-up Light
Keep the name LASER under your hat. Some day, devices bearing that monicker may vastly increase the range of space communication; make possible knifeless surgery; allow transmission of 100 million simultaneous telephone calls; and even provide a new form of death ray.

Navy and other scientists say such possibilities are envisioned from still highly experimental research on the LASER technique, more formally known as "Light Amplification by Stimulated Emission of Radiation."

LASER is a system for amplifying and sharpening weak waves of light to produce a very narrow, powerful beam—and the ultimate hope is to employ optical waves in much the same way radio waves are now used.

Its secret is based on the fact that if certain chemicals, gaseous or solid, are excited to emit light—for example, under the influence of an electric current—the weak light will further interact with atoms of the material. Under proper conditions, the original waves of light are thereby intensified.

Aerial Typist
Now we have skytyping by air-planes as well as the more familiar skywriting.

As described in Ethyl News, five airplanes fly parallel courses in tight formation and shoot out staccato smoke bursts electronically. The idea is to get a sky-written advertisement out fast before poor weather sets in.

In the typing technique, one central-control pilot in the squadron operates a radio transmitter which sends impulses to receivers in the other planes—triggering smoke valves.

Chillicothe Employees Suspend Their Walkout

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Striking members of the United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastics Workers Union will return to work at the Johns-Manville Co. plant pending the outcome of an NLRB hearing Feb. 27.

The employees, out since Nov. 3, suspended the strike and are expected to be back to work by next Monday. The union has filed charges of unfair labor practices against the company.

Diagnosis Comes Before Treatment

Q. My blood count is low. What iron-containing foods would bring it up? Can complications develop?

A. A low blood count can be due to many things other than lack of iron. Diagnosis comes before treatment. Visit your doctor. He will find out what's causing the anemia and prescribe whatever is necessary. There is probably a simple explanation for your low count. On the other hand, it is unwise to "treat the blood count" without proper diagnosis. In some cases such treatment will mask a serious disorder.

Sarcoidosis
Q. What is the sickness called sarcoidosis?

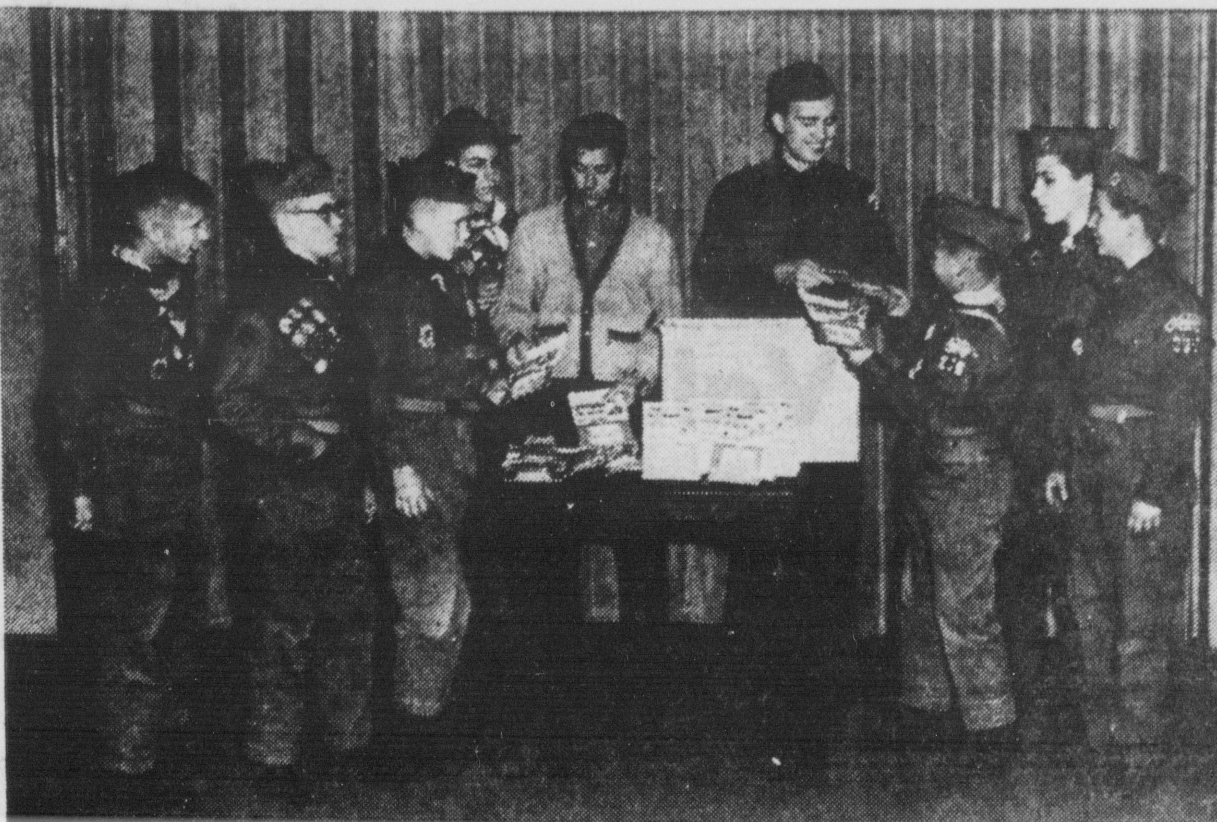

A. It is a disease involving lymphatic and other tissue. The exact cause is unknown but some medical investigators have related the condition to tuberculosis. However, the tuberculosis germ has never been found in the affected tissue. Fortunately, the condition can be controlled in most cases by early treatment.

Answers appearing in these columns are of necessity, brief and general in nature and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of all physicians. Prescriptions called for promptly and delivered quickly.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the most awful things about the federal budget—and it is awful if you're not good at arithmetic—is that it will monopolize Washington conversation for quite a while.

In two plump volumes President Kennedy at noon Thursday unfolds for Congress the national budget, his estimate on the cost of running the government another year.

One of the most delightful things about Kennedy's budget, in a gruesome kind of way, is that it is supposed to be more simplified and streamlined than any budget of the past.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Winter seemed about to tighten its grip on Ohio again this morning as another cold Canadian air mass began to move toward the state.

Skies remained clear during the night except near Cleveland, where light snow flurries fell during the day. Temperatures at sunrise ranged from 5 above at Toledo to 13 at Columbus and 24 at Chesapeake.

A cold wave will engulf the northern half of the state tonight, with temperatures dropped to sub-zero. The cold weather will continue Thursday with afternoon temperatures mostly in the teens or low 20s.

Light snow or snow flurries will occur near Lake Erie.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS
NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average 17-21 degrees below normal. Normal. Normal high 34-36, normal low 18-22. Very cold until slowly moderating temperatures Saturday or Sunday, but colder Monday. Precipitation will average one-fourth to one-half inch as snow flurries Thursday and Friday and overcast some snow squalls. Snow or snow flurries again Monday.

SOUTHER & CENTRAL OHIO — Temperatures will average 10-15 degrees below normal. Normal high 37-42, normal low 21-27. Day-to-day changes, mostly colder. Precipitation will average one-tenth to two-tenths of an inch occurring first of next week.

The only one likely to think so is the superintendent of a digit factory. Nobody could enjoy this budget, or any other budget, except an accountant. Having to read it is like being sentenced to frustration.

Many people in government, thousands, have been putting this estimate together since last summer.

The all-time peak for budget spending in any one year — $98,416,000,000 — was reached in 1945. That was the big, climactic year of World War II.

Kennedy's budget is expected to be around $92.5 billion, the highest of any peacetime year. It is for the fiscal year beginning next July 1 and ending June 30, 1963.

If this seems like a shocker, it needn't be. The cost of running the government has been going up. In the fiscal year ending next June 30 spending will probably top $89 billion.

The budget trend under President Dwight D. Eisenhower was up, too, although it dipped a couple of times. It has been that way ever since President Harry S. Truman's time when, after a post-war low point of $32,955,000,000 in 1948, there was an almost steady march up.

In the various departments and agencies of government, beginning last summer, officials began estimating their next fiscal year cost. Department heads went over the figures. They are supposed to cut where they can.

When all that is done, the fig-

Republican State of Union Idea Shunned

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House Republican leaders have quietly vetoed National Chairman William E. Miller's effort to write a GOP state of the union message.

Miller circulated among party chieftains a 4,000-word document vigorously criticizing the Kennedy administration's record and proposing a series of political stands to be taken by Republicans in the new session of Congress.

Miller predicted 10 days ago the issuance of such a statement. He said the idea was to advance "affirmative programs" which Republican candidates could cite in the campaign as being more effective than President Kennedy's proposals.

The Republican leaders in the Senate and House, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, declined to go along with the idea.

They put the project in mothballs for possible consideration later in the year of some statement of broad principles on which a majority of Republicans could agree.

Dirksen and Halleck will continue to lay down Republican tenets in their weekly "Ev and Charlie" news conference, uninhibited by any guidelines Miller wanted defined in advance.

The first of their 1962 news conferences is scheduled for Thursday.

2 New Dems Named To House Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Clark W. Thompson, D-Tex., and Rep. Martha W. Griffiths, D-Mich., were named today to the powerful House Ways and Means Committee. That group has jurisdiction over major portions of President Kennedy's program.

Their appointment was approved first by a Democratic party caucus and later by the House itself.

The selections meant no loss of strength to Kennedy on the committee, which divides as often along liberal-conservative as along partisan lines. But so far as could be told immediately, he picked up no positive additional support, either.

Wesleyan Keeps on Dogging Steps of Winning Wittenberg

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohio Wesleyan keeps dogging Wesleyan's steps, but the Tigers' defense of their three straight Ohio Conference basketball championships is just as tenacious as their actual on-court defense.

Wesleyan's Bishops raised their league record to 8-1 Tuesday night by routing Otterbein 84-41. But Wittenberg's defensive demons squelched Denison 64-42 for an O. C. record of 7-0.

Other Ohio cage activity Tuesday night saw Bowling Green and Ashland solidify their Mid-American and Mid-Ohio leads, respectively, by picking on league cellar-dwellers. Eighth-ranked B-G won at Kent State 68-56. Ashland whipped Bluffton 83-71.

Before a 12,000 crowd in Cincinnati Gardens, third-rated Cincinnati rallied from a 33-26 halftime deficit to overwhelm old rival Dayton, 80-61.

Oberlin tripped Western Reserve 74-65 and Cedarville downed Rio Grande 81-65 to round out the program.

That Wittenberg - Ohio Wesleyan

race comes to a crossroads two weeks from now when the Tigers leave the friendly home gym — they've won 54 straight games there now — and take on the Bishops at Delaware.

Wesleyan, now 13-2 over-all and rolling since an early season 62-60 league defeat at Muskingum, thumped Otterbein from the word go. It was 45-19 at the half, and 64-25 when Coach Frank Shannon started emptying his bench. The tall Bishops limited the Otters' 20-point average, Bill Dodson, to two free throws, while Ray Slabough scored 20 in the winning cause.

Wittenberg made it 40 in a row in the Ohio Conference with an equally easy win. The great Tiger zone checked Denison with four field goals the first half as Wittenberg moved to a 30-10 lead at intermission. Al Thrasher scored 21 for the Lutherans, who shot 52 per cent from the field.

Bowling Green, now 5-0 in MAC play and 13-1 for all games, had trouble with Kent for a half. But Wavey Junior's three-point play broke a 29-29 tie just before the rest period and the falcons went on to lead by as much as 17 points. Kent is now 0-5 in the conference.

Boze Johnson dropped in 24 points as Ashland lifted its Mid-Ohio mark to 5-1 while lowering Bluffton's to 1-6. The Eagles stretched a narrow lead to a comfortable one in the closing minutes.

Cincinnati's Bearcats, cold in their shooting through the opening half, scorched the nets at nearly a 70 per cent clip in their comeback. The 'Cats (12-2) opened the final 20 minutes by out-scoring Dayton 16-2 and from there it was a romp. Paul Hogue, Cincy's 6-foot-9 pivotman, topped the scorer with 21. Cincinnati cashed in 24 free throws to Dayton's 9 to account for most of the margin.

Junior High Drops Verdict To Western

Circleville's Junior High cage squad dropped a 43-42 thriller yesterday at Chillicothe Western.

The score was deadlocked at the end of each quarter — 8-8, 14-14 and 25-25. A Western foul shot with two seconds to go was the clincher.

Howard Dade again was the sparkplug for Circleville, ringing the nets for 15 points. Tim Stonerock added 12 and Tom Jenkins and Dave Iery came through with six each.

Kinney was top man for Chillicothe with 16 points, one of them being the winning foul shot. Woodward and Valentine chipped in with 12 each.

CIRCLEVILLE connected on six of 14 foul shot attempts and Western gained 13 of 23.

Coach Paul Sarchet's crew now owns a 5-2 mark. The team's next test is scheduled tomorrow at Thomas Ewing in Lancaster.

324 Golfers Enter Bing's Annual Event

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Bing Crosby's $50,000 golf production opens Thursday with a bulky field of 324 scattered over three courses and nature providing treacherous problems in a picturesque setting.

Celebrities in fields of entertainment, business, profession and sports team with golfing pros, who also shoot individually for a top prize of $5,300.

Crosby's event formally is known as the National Pro-Amateur, with the field boosted this year to 162 teams. Each pro has an amateur as his partner.

Bob Rosburg, former PGA champion, defends his individual title. He captured last year's event with a 72-hole total of 282.

Pro Wes Ellis teamed with San Francisco attorney Frank Tatum Jr. to take the pro-amateur crown with a best ball score of 252. They are seeking to defend a championship no team has won two years in a row.

Each golfer plays one round over Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Cypress Point and Pebble Beach before the field is reduced for Sunday's final at Pebble Beach.

Fingers are crossed for good weather, but rain is no novelty here, and winds whipping off the Pacific Ocean compound the problems on the trick courses.

Eleven pros who have won the Crosby are in the field. They face a host of young challengers including 1961 amateur champion Jack Nicklaus, Phil Rodgers who won the Los Angeles Open, and Tommy Jacobs who captured the top prize Sunday at San Diego.

Deers Lose To Huntington In 72-62 Test

The Williamsport Deers were defeated last night by visiting Huntington in a 72-62 struggle.

The Deers, working hard all the way, trailed by two points at intermission, 28-26, fell behind seven marks at the end of the third period, 47-40 and finished the test with a ten-point deficit.

Coach Glen Chester's cagers were up against an overpowering Huntington five from the first blast of the whistle. The victors' six-foot-six Butler, who racked 11 points without any difficulty, and Seeling, who pushed through 12 goals and five charities for 29 points, helped to record a 48 per cent shooting average for Huntington.

Williamsport's top men of last night's tilt were Rick Pond and Don Steinhauser who finished with 20 and 16 totals respectively. The Deers' shooting average was 32 per cent.

THE Deers, with a record of 9-5, will meet Charlie Baxter's Buffaloes Friday night on the Scio to court.

Kirkland Signs Tribe Pact for $18,000

CLEVELAND (AP)—Willie Kirkland, Cleveland's best home run hitter, has signed his 1962 contract for an estimated $18,000.

The 27-year-old outfielder agreed to terms after a brief conference Tuesday with General Manager Gabe Paul.

One of the fastest runners on the team, Kirkland has hit into only seven double plays in two seasons, three of them coming in 1961. He smacked 27 home runs and drove in 95 runs, both high for the Indians last season. His average was .259.

Bucs Rule Baseballers Out of Show Business

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates' management has decided that baseball and show business don't mix.

The club announced Tuesday that no member of the team will be allowed to have his own radio or television show this season.

Three of the Pirates had shows last year — third baseman Don Hoak on TV and shortstop Dick Groat and pitcher Bob Friend on radio.

The New York Yankees open their 1962 home season against the Baltimore Orioles on Tuesday, April 10, and close the campaign on Sunday, Sept. 30, with the Chicago White Sox.

Boxer Seeks Title As Beer-Drinker

BELLSHILL, Scotland (AP) —

At the age of 41, ex-boxer Bob Bolton still dreams of a world title. The crown he now covets is the world champion beer drinker.

"When I got too old for fighting, I settled for beer," Bob explained.

Bob used to box as an army amateur. After changing his game he reached a peak of form in which he could down nine pints of beer in 67 seconds.

But his prowess scared off local challengers and at his last tryout Bob managed only five pints in 42 seconds.

His drinking when displayed on television brought an angry growl from Scotland's temperance section.

Five girls won more than $10,000 on the Ladies PGA golf tour in 1961. They were Mickey Wright, Betsy Rawls, Louise Suggs, Mary Lena Faulk and Marilyn Smith.

The Los Angeles Angels did well at home during their first season winning 46 and losing 36. Their road record was a poor 24-55.

OLD STUFF TO CASE—It's banquet circle and award time and these two recipients are your old friend, Casey Stengel (left), new manager of the Mets, and Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Reds. Reserve Mat Team Victors In East Bout Circleville High School's reserve wrestling team, matching the winning ways of its varsity counterpart, handed host Columbus East's reservists a 24-16 setback yesterday.

Coach Jim Lint's crew picked up two pins along the way, with Mike Wilson doing the trick in the 165-pound class and Howard Fletcher in the heavyweight division.

Gaining decisions for CHS were Jr. Tootle, Charlie Martin, Bill Myers and Tom Copland. East earned one pin and three decisions.

Jerry Francis of Circleville and Latham of East battled to a draw in the 133 class.

Here are the results:

103 pounds — Tootle (C) decisioned Carter (E); 112 pounds — Martin (C) decisioned Brown (E); 120 pounds — Hilton (E) decisioned Betts (C); 127 pounds — Mansfield (E) decisioned McDowell (C); 133 pounds — Francis (C) and Latham (E), draw; 138 pounds — Myers (C) decisioned Holloway (E); 145 pounds — Reed (E) decisioned Diehl (C); 154 pounds — Copland (C) decisioned Moss (E); 165 pounds — Wilson (C) pinned Henderson (E); 175 pounds — Brown (E) pinned Thompson (C); Heavyweight — Fletcher (C) pinned Henderson (E).

RING MEETING NEXT?—World heavyweight king Floyd Patterson (right) and the No. 1 challenger, Sonny Liston, meet outside the ring at the New York Boxing Writers dinner. Biggest question was when will they meet in the ring?

Wesleyan Keeps on Dogging Steps of Winning Wittenberg

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohio Wesleyan keeps dogging Wittenberg's steps, but the Tigers' defense of their three straight Ohio Conference basketball championships is just as tenacious as their actual on-court defense.

Wesleyan's Bishops raised their league record to 8-1 Tuesday night by routing Otterbein 84-41. But Wittenberg's defensive demons squelched Denison 64-42 for an O. C. record of 7-0.

Other Ohio cage activity Tuesday night saw Bowling Green and Ashland solidify their Mid-American and Mid-Ohio leads, respectively, by picking on league cellar-dwellers. Eighth-ranked B-G won at Kent State 68-56. Ashland whipped Bluffton 83-71.

Before a 12,000 crowd in Cincinnati Gardens, third-rated Cincinnati rallied from a 33-26 halftime deficit to overwhelm old rival Dayton, 80-61.

Oberlin tripped Western Reserve 74-65 and Cedarville downed Rio Grande 81-65 to round out the program.

Junior High Drops Verdict To Western

Circleville's Junior High cage squad dropped a 43-42 thriller yesterday at Chillicothe Western.

The score was deadlocked at the end of each quarter — 8-8, 14-14 and 25-25. A Western foul shot with two seconds to go was the clincher.

Howard Dade again was the sparkplug for Circleville, ringing the nets for 15 points. Tim Stonerock added 12 and Tom Jenkins and Dave Jery came through with six each.

Kinney was top man for Chillicothe with 16 points, one of them being the winning foul shot. Woodward and Valentine chipped in with 12 each.

CIRCLEVILLE connected on six of 14 foul shot attempts and Western gained 13 of 23.

Coach Paul Sarchet's crew now owns a 5-2 mark. The team's next test is scheduled tomorrow at Thomas Ewing in Lancaster.

324 Golfers Enter Bing's Annual Event

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Bing Crosby's $50,000 golf production opens Thursday with a bulky field of 324 scattered over three courses and nature providing treacherous problems in a picturesque setting.

Celebrities in fields of entertainment, business, profession and sports team with golfing pros, who also shoot individually for a top prize of $5,300.

Crosby's event formally is known as the National Pro-Amateur, with the field boosted this year to 162 teams. Each pro has an amateur as his partner.

Bob Rosburg, former PGA champion, defends his individual title. He captured last year's event with a 72-hole total of 282.

Pro Wes Ellis teamed with San Francisco attorney Frank Tatum Jr. to take the pro-amateur crown with a best ball score of 252.

They are seeking to defend a championship no team has won two years in a row.

Each golfer plays one round over Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Cypress Point and Pebble Beach before the field is reduced for Sunday's final at Pebble Beach.

Fingers are crossed for good weather, but rain is no novelty here, and winds whipping off the Pacific Ocean compound the problems on the trick courses.

Eleven pros who have won the Crosby are in the field. They face a host of young challengers including 1961 amateur champion Jack Nicklaus, Phil Rodgers who won the Los Angeles Open, and Tommy Jacobs who captured the top prize Sunday at San Diego.

Deers Lose To Huntington In 72-62 Test

The Williamsport Deers were defeated last night by visiting Huntington in a 72-62 struggle.

The Deers, working hard all the way, trailed by two points at intermission, 28-26, fell behind seven marks at the end of the third period, 47-40 and finished the test with a ten-point deficit.

Coach Glen Chester's cagers were up against an overpowering Huntington five from the first blast of the whistle. The victors' six-foot-six Butler, who racked 11 points without any difficulty, and Seeling, who pushed through 12 goals and five charities for 29 points, helped to record a 48 per cent shooting average for Huntington.

Williamsport's top men of last night's tilt were Rick Pond and Don Steinhauer who finished with 20 and 16 goals respectively. The Deers' shooting average was 32 per cent.

THE Deers, with a record of 9-5, will meet Charlie Baxter's Buffaloes Friday night on the Scio to court.

The Williamsport reserve squad handed their visitors a 41-33 defeat.

NEW YORK (AP)—That great institution, the circus, in recent years has fallen upon hard times.
Other forms of entertainment, including broadcasts, reached parts of the country that once depended upon an occasional visit of the traveling tent shows.
But now, in the measured opinion of Emmett Kelly, probably the nation's most famous clown, television is reviving interest in the big shows.

Kelly, whose 'Weary Willie' character has delighted cotton candy-eating crowds for two generations, said that around 1950 he felt the circus had really "started to go." Crowds were no longer turning out, circuses were combining and sometimes not even leaving winter quarters.

"But now things seem to be picking up," he continued. "People seem to want to go to the circus again. And I think TV is completely responsible — particularly because the children are interested."

Kelly will be narrator Sunday night of a Project 20 documentary showing behind-the-scenes - circus life on NBC's "Show of the Week."

ABC will follow NBC's lead by running full length feature films regularly in prime time. Starting April 8, the network will put old movies with big star names in a two-hour spot on the Sunday evening schedule. There are reports that the plan will dislodge "Bus Stop" and "Adventures in Paradise," neither of which have been getting good audience ratings.

NBC's Saturday night movies—two hours of old films—have done fairly well, but their popularity seems to rise and fall with the quality of the movie and the size of the movie-star names involved.

ABC's decision to go ahead on
Jan. 23 with the taped comedy special made by Ernie Kovacs shortly before his death could be a mistake in view of the tragic circumstances. It will be difficult for viewers to catch the spirit of his comedy. It may be a pretty morbid half hour.

DOWN ON HIS LUCK—A state police car escorts a light plane along Route 128 near Needham, Mass., to get it into a field and out of the way. Roger Doherty of Salem, N. H., said ice in the carburetor forced him down. He didn't land on a single car, either.

Maris Fete Voted As 'Top Thrill'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The exploits of Roger Maris and his assault on Babe Ruth's home run record were overwhelmingly acclaimed the top sports thrill of 1961 in the annual Associated Press yearend poll. Maris hit home run No. 61 on the last day of the baseball season to break Ruth's standard and climax the drama and pressure that had mounted as the New York Yankee slugger approached the record. Of the 107 sports writers and sportscasters participating in the poll, 71 tabbed Maris' drive toward Ruth's mark of 60 home runs as the most thrilling sports story in 1961.

It's a two-stroke penalty when a golf pro's ball strikes the flagstick on shots within 60 feet of the hole, except when he's in a hazard.

West Pro Cage Stars Romp

East Is Humbled In Annual Classic

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The West holds an edge in top talent with the likes of Oscar Robertson, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West, and with youth on its side, soon may catch the East in the National Basketball Association All-Star game series.

That's the opinion of Fred Schaus of Los Angeles, who coached the West in its convincing 150-130 victory over the veteran East stars in the 12th annual game before 15,112 here on Tuesday night. The East still leads the series 7-5.

"Understand, I'm talking about individuals, not teams," Schaus said. "You have to concede the Boston Celtics still are the best team in basketball."

Bob Pettit, 8-year veteran of the game's most valuable player trophy with a record 27 rebounds. Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-1 Philadelphia who holds a 49-point scoring average, set an NBA All-Star scoring record with 42 points.

Yet most observers felt the cat-like Robertson was the difference with his smooth play making and 14-point third-quarter burst that put the West out of reach.

"Oscar got us running again in the third quarter and that broke open the game," Schaus said, "but I won't argue that Pettit deserved the MVP award. Anytime a man gets 27 rebounds over the heads of Chamberlain and Bill Russell (of Boston), you have to hand it to him."

Pettit had 27 votes from writers, Robertson 11 and Baylor 5. Baylor, playing on an Army pass from Ft. Lewis, Wash., after a two-week layoff, led the West with 32 points. He admitted "I was tired and a little out of shape." Robertson had 26 points and Pettit 25.

Boston's Red Auerbach, coaching the East for the 6th straight year, thought Cincinnati's Jack Twyman "really killed us" with nine third-quarter points. The West won last year 153-131.

Patterson-Liston Signup Is Hinted

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom Bolan, president of Championship Sports, intimates a month ago that heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson would sign a contract the latter part of this month to meet No. 1 contender Sonny Liston, a boxing source said today.

The source, who did not want to be identified by name, said the proposed title bout probably would be held in New York no later than June.

According to the source, Patterson promised Liston a shot at the title last December through Bolan but never made a public announcement. In recent weeks Patterson reaffirmed that he would fight Liston with Championship Sports promoting, the source said.

The Chicago Cubs, seventh in the National League last season, proved that the champion Cincinnati Reds "could be had." The Cubs beat the Reds 12 times in 22 meetings.

Pickaway Grange Report

Star Grange met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Monroe School auditorium with Worthy Master Paul Long presiding over the business session.

The secretary, Mrs. Helen Schleich, read several belated Christmas greetings that had been received since the last grange meeting. She also read "thank you" notes from Winfred Bidwell for cards and flowers received from grange members following his accident, and from Mrs. Allen Mason for the basket of food received from the grange at Christmas. A letter of appreciation was read from Jerry Raso for the blood donations from Star Grange for his aunt last month.

Mrs. Francis Furniss, home economics chairman, announced that the sewing and baking contests will be coming up this spring and urged members to participate.

The group voted a contribution to health seals and also to the school and community club.

Mrs. Frederick Overly, lecturer, announced that the program under the direction of the Community Service Committee was in charge of Mrs. Herman Porter, chairman. She opened the program with group singing "It's Fun to Get Together" with Mrs. Overly, Mrs. Kenneth Reid and Mrs. Lawrence Reid playing toy horns and wearing top hats to welcome the members. Bruce Reid played a piano solo "Battle Hymn of the Republic".

World War II Vets Planning Reunion

The 83rd Infantry Division, the famed Thunderbolt Division of World War II, is conducting a search for some 30,000 of its former members in connection with an annual reunion slated for early fall.

Victor E. Landis, publicity director of the veteran group, announced the convalesce will be held in Atlantic City, N. J., on August 17, 18 and 19. A fine program has been arranged and nationally known speakers will address the meetings, he added.

All former members of the 83rd are requested by Landis to contact the national secretary, Harry Lockwood, 43 Oakland Ave., Jersey City 6, N. J.

The interior murals of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington D.C. are waterproofed by paint mixed with wax and kerosene.

Ohio Welfare Setup Change Is Urged

CLEVELAND (AP)—The executive director of the Ohio Citizens Council for Health and Welfare says reconstruction of Ohio's welfare administration is badly needed.

"Today, welfare is a complicated mess," Richard S. Bachman told the general assembly of the Cleveland Federation of Settlements Tuesday. One of the most pressing needs, he said, is smaller Ohio counties banding together into regions for welfare administration purposes.

"Some of these counties are too small to provide adequate facilities and staff for welfare work," he said. Bachman said it was especially strange that the administration of welfare in Ohio, with the exception of old-age assistance, was left to counties and municipalities.

"The state puts up the majority of welfare money that doesn't come from the federal government," he said, but local governments control the program.

He said money paid for all types of public assistance in Ohio amounted to $226.5 million in 1960. "And it affects a great many areas," Bachman continued.

"There are 400,000 persons receiving assistance in Ohio out of a population of 10 million."

New Hydroskimmer Ordered by Navy

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Bell Aerosystems Co. said today it will build for the U.S. Navy Bureau of Ships a 62-foot hydroskimmer designed to carry a payload of five tons at speeds up to 70 miles an hour.

The craft will "ride" two feet above the surface of the water on a cushion of air produced by four horizontally mounted fans.

Forward thrust will be provided by two propellers mounted in ducts on the boat's afterdeck.

The cushion fans and propellers will be powered by a total of four 1,080-horsepower marine gas turbine engines.

Elks To Compete In Ritual Contest

Circleville BPO Elks will participate in the District Ritualistic Contest to be held during the weekend at Newark, Exalted Ruler, James Grant announced today.

Eight entries will compete in the contest for the right to represent the South Central District of BPOE in the state contest to be held in Columbus in early May.

The Newark Lodge has arranged a series of social and business meetings in connection with the contest.

The South Central District includes lodges in Athens, Chillicothe, Columbus, Gallipolis, Iron-ton, Jackson, Lancaster, Logan, Marysville, Nelsonville and Portsmouth, in addition to the Circleville and Newark units.

Kennedy OKs Reorganization Program for Army Ordnance

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has approved a reorganization of the Army ordnance, quartermaster and other technical services and submitted the plan to Congress.

The reorganization, which also includes a streamlining of general staff operations, was proposed by Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr. and approved initially by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The White House said the reorganization would take effect within 30 days if neither the House nor Senate Armed Services Committee objects. If either unit disapproves it, the plan would then go before Congress as a whole. Congress would then have 40 days in which to reject the proposal.

The plan would go into effect automatically if Congress does not act against it within that period.

The aim is to promote efficiency by grouping under two new commands the operations now being conducted by separate technical services such as the Transportation, Chemical, Signal, Ordnance and Quartermaster Corps.

The Army general staff also will be relieved of some of its responsibilities in these fields so it can concentrate on overall planning and policy making.

The staff's present training and school operations will be shifted to the Continental Army Command.

The plan is the product of about seven months of work.

It does not affect the combat structure of the Army or any of the field command organizations.

The Army already has set in motion the reshaping of its fighting divisions for greater mobility and staying power.

Some aspects of the plan may run into opposition in Congress, although an apparent effort has been made to avoid this possible difficulty by leaving the Corps of Engineers' civil functions relatively untouched.

Army Engineers, among other things, handle river and harbor and flood control projects dear to many congressmen.

Army planners intend to create a new Material Development and Logistics Command and a Combat Developments Command.

The Combat Developments Command will decide what kinds of equipment are needed for the fighting forces in the varying terrain and other conditions they might face.

The Material Development Command will take charge of procurement, storage and other handling of gear and supplies used by the Army.

Pickaway Grange Report

Star Grange met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Monroe School auditorium with Worthy Master Paul Long presiding over the business session.

The secretary, Mrs. Helen Schleich, read several belated Christmas greetings that had been received since the last grange meeting. She also read "thank you" notes from Winfred Bidwell for cards and flowers received from grange members following his accident, and from Mrs. Allen Mason for the basket of food received from the grange at Christmas. A letter of appreciation was read from Jerry Risor for the blood donations from Star Grange for his aunt last month.

Mrs. Frances Furniss, home economics chairman, announced that the sewing and baking contests will be coming up this spring and urged members to participate.

The group voted a contribution to health seals and also to the school and community club.

Mrs. Frederick Overly, lecturer, announced that the program under the direction of the Community Service Committee was in charge of Mrs. Herman Porter, chairman. She opened the program with group singing "It's Fun to Get Together" with Mrs. Overly, Mrs. Kenneth Reid and Mrs. Lawrence Reid playing toy horns and wearing top hats to welcome the members. Bruce Reid played a piano solo "Battle Hymn of the Republic".

World War II Vets Planning Reunion

The 83rd Infantry Division, the famed Thunderbolt Division of World War II, is conducting a search for some 30,000 of its former members in connection with an annual reunion slated for early fall.

Victor E. Landis, publicity director of the veteran group, announced the conclave will be held in Atlantic City, N. J., on August 17, 18 and 19. A fine program has been arranged and nationally known speakers will address the meetings, he added.

All former members of the 83rd are requested by Landis to contact the national secretary, Harry Lockwood, 43 Oakland Ave., Jersey City 6, N. J.

Ohio Welfare Setup Change Is Urged

CLEVELAND (AP)—The executive director of the Ohio Citizens Council for Health and Welfare says reconstruction of Ohio's welfare administration is badly needed.

"Today, welfare is a complicated mess," Richard S. Bachman told the general assembly of the Cleveland Federation of Settlements Tuesday. One of the most pressing needs, he said, is smaller Ohio counties banding together into regions for welfare administration purposes.

"Some of these counties are too small to provide adequate facilities and staff for welfare work," he said. Bachman said it was especially strange that the administration of welfare in Ohio, with the exception of old-age assistance, was left to counties and municipalities.

"The state puts up the majority of welfare money that doesn't come from the federal government," he said, but local governments control the program.

He said money paid for all types of public assistance in Ohio amounted to $226.5 million in 1960. "And it affects a great many areas," Bachman continued: "There are 400,000 persons receiving assistance in Ohio out of a population of 10 million."
